Date of decision: 07.02.2024

BALDEV SINGH

....Petitioner

Versus

SUNIL DUTT

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE KULDEEP TIWARI

Present : Mr. Deepak Sabharwal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Abhilakh Grover, Advocate for the respondent.

KULDEEP TIWARI. J.(Oral)

1. The instant petition, under Section 482 Cr.P.C, has been filed for quashing of complaint No.70 of 2017 dated 29.04.2017, under Sections 323, 452 and 506 of IPC, and also for quashing of the summoning order dated 03.02.2023 (Annexure P-6), along with all the consequential proceedings arising therefrom.
2. Since the impugned summoning order is a revisable order, therefore, the petitioner has an alternate remedy, viz-a-viz, filing an appropriate motion before the Revisional Court concerned. Consequently, this Court refrains from making any interference in the matter, and the petitioner is relegated to the Revisional Court concerned. In case the petitioner moves an appropriate motion before the Revisional Court concerned within 15 days, the revisional Court concerned shall decide the same most expeditiously, after offering adequate opportunity of hearing to the respondent concerned. Further in case an application for condonation of delay is filed along with the revision petition, the Revisional Court concerned shall decide the same, considering the fact that the petitioner has already approached this Court for the same cause of action.

3. Disposed of accordingly.
