*“The petitioner has approached this Court seeking quashing of FIR (Annexure P-1) and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom on the basis of a compromise having been effected between the parties. Notice of motion.

3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 30.05.2024 from Additional District & Sessions Judge, Gurdaspur, has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“I have the honour to submit that in compliance above said order of Hon'ble High Court, Mr. Karanjit Singh, Advocate was appointed as Commissioner in this case to record the statements of the parties and after recording the statements, he submitted his affidavit that he informed both the parties Yodha Singh and Prosecutrix through their respective counsels and both parties have been duly identified by their counsels and he recorded the statements of the parties as per law. The Hon'ble High Court had also directed the trial Court to call Investigating Officer and sought information of three queries and in compliance of the order of Hon'ble High Court, Investigating Officer SI Navneet Kaur submitted that Yodha Singh was only accused involved in this case, no other complaint or FIR is pending against the accused Yodha Singh in police Station Civil Lines Batala and accused Yodha Singh has never been declared proclaimed offender in this case. It is humbly submitted that from above recorded statements of both the parties, it appears that compromise has been effected between them and same is voluntary, free from pressure, coercion or influence and is genuine in nature. The report is accordingly submitted, please.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the factum of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioner is quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-3).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State

State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/ charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.

(g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

8. Learned counsel for the parties, in support of their contentions have relied upon the following judgments :-

- i) Ranjeet Kumar versus State of H.P. & Ors. in case CRM-M-648 of 2023 decided on 08.12.2023 by the High Court of Himachal Pradesh, Shimla.*
- ii) Arif Khan versus The State and another in case W.P. (CRL) 1064/2023 decided on 09.01.2024 by the High Court of Delhi at New Delhi.*
- iii) Sukhchain Singh and others versus State of Punjab and others 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 81.*
- iv) Ananda DV Vs. State and another 2021 SCC Online SC 3423.*

9. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.*
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.*
- (iii) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.*
- (iv) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.*

10. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.395 dated 21.12.2022 under Sections 417, 494 of IPC (Sections 376, 506, 323 of IPC added later on & Section 417 of IPC deleted) registered at Police Station Civil Lines Batala, Police District Batala, District Gurdaspur and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 09.05.2024 (Annexure P-3), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioner.

11. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
