SANDEEP MOUDGIL, J (ORAL)

The present criminal writ petition under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India has been preferred for issuance of a writ in the nature of Habeas Corpus for directing respondent No.2 to release the detenue namely, Bhawna, daughter of the present petitioners, who is stated to be illegally detained by respondents No.5 to 9.

Today, the alleged detenue is present in Court along with ASI Sonia who has brought her from Protection Home, Police Lines, Sonapat, as was directed on the last date. The alleged detenue wants to go with Vineet only and is not ready to talk with her mother. The mother of the detenue is present in Court but she has flatly refused to go with her and to talk even for a shorter period.

Learned State Counsel informs that respondent No.5-Vineet has also taken care in the same protection home.

In light of such sequence of events, this Court is left with no other option but to dispose of this petition wherein alleged detainee stands recovered and is being kept at protection home.

Petition stands disposed of as having been rendered infructuous with liberty to take appropriate other legal remedy available as per law.
