“Apprehending her arrest in FIR No.38 dated 10.04.2024 registered for offences punishable under Sections 406 and 498-A IPC at Police Station NRI, District SAS Nagar (Mohali); the petitioner has preferred this petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C. seeking pre-arrest bail.

Inter alia contends that the petitioner is a lady aged about 54 years; the FIR in question is a result of matrimonial discord arising from the marriage between the son of the petitioner and complainant-wife; petitioner is willing to return the dowry articles/istridhan including gold articles in her possession to the complainant-wife; petitioner is ready for an amicable settlement as well; petitioner has clean antecedents & she is willing to join investigation and cooperate therein. In order to buttress his arguments, learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the dicta of the

As and when further called by Investigating Officer, the petitioner shall join the investigation. She shall abide by the condition(s) enumerated under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.”

3. On 10.07.2024, the following order was passed:

“Learned State counsel submits that petitioner has joined the investigation but is not cooperating therein for effecting recovery. Rebutting the same, learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that there are no dowry articles in possession of the petitioner much less as alleged by the State counsel and learned counsel for the complainant.

At this stage, on joint request has been made on behalf of learned counsel for the petitioner as also learned counsel for the complainant that the instant matter be referred to Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court to explore the possibility of amicable settlement between the parties.

In the interest of justice, the matter is referred to Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court to explore the possibility of amicable settlement between the parties. The parties (through their respective counsel) are directed to appear there on 16.07.2024 and report therefrom be awaited for 06.08.2024.

Interim order to continue.”

4. The mediation proceedings initiated between the parties have not fructified.

5. Learned State counsel, on instructions from ASI Sohan Singh, has stated that pursuant to the order dated 27.05.2024 the petitioner has joined investigation and is no longer required for custodial interrogation. However, learned State counsel as also the learned counsel for the complainant have submitted that only partial recovery of dowry articles has been effected and remaining dowry articles are yet to be recovered.

6. Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that no dowry articles/Istri-dhan as alleged are in possession of the petitioner.

7. I have heard the learned counsel for the rival parties and have perused the paper book.

8. It will be apposite to refer to a judgment dated 12.02.2024 passed by this Court in CRM-M-60647-2023 titled as “Varun Sharma Vs. State of Punjab and another”, relevant whereof reads as under:

“11. As a sequel to the above said discussion, the following principles of law emerge:-

(I) Non-recovery of dowry articles/Istri-dhan cannot ordinarily be a ground, by itself, for declining a plea for grant of anticipatory bail to the husband or his relatives.

(II) The conduct of an accused, is indeed, a relevant factor for consideration of a plea for grant of anticipatory bail on behalf of such accused. Such conduct would also include the cooperation, in accordance with law, extended by such accused for recovery of dowry articles/Istri-dhan. Whether or not such cooperation was extended by the accused would be ascertainable from the facts and circumstances of a given case.

(III) In exceptional cases, if the peculiar and/or accentuating facts/circumstances of the case so warrant, a Court would be well within its discretion to pass a direction to the petitioner- accused to deposit in Court or remit to the complainant-wife an appropriate amount towards the Istri-dhan/dowry articles. Needless to state herein that it is neither possible nor desirable to enumerate a set of guidelines in this regard & a Court would have to exercise its judicial discretion in this regard in the facts and circumstances of a given case.”

CRM-M-27246-2024 (O&M)

9. Non-recovery of dowry articles/Istridhan in entirety thereof cannot, by itself, be a cause for rejection of the present plea for anticipatory bail by the petitioner especially when the State does not require custodial interrogation of petitioner on any other count except for effecting recovery of remaining dowry articles/Istridhan. The aspect, as to what all are the dowry articles/Istridhan in question in the present case & whether the entire dowry articles have been recovered or not, shall be essentially gone into during the course of trial. No accentuating circumstances are decipherable, from the factual matrix of the present case, so as to direct the petitioner to deposit any amount towards the alleged non-recovery of complete dowry articles. No such misconduct by the petitioner has been pointed out which may dissuade this Court from confirming the interim anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

10. In view of above, the petition is allowed and interim order dated 27.05.2024 passed by this Court is made absolute, subject to the conditions as enumerated under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.

11. This order should not be treated as “blanket” order. It will not be interpreted as granting petitioner indefinite protection from arrest. It shall be confined to the FIR mentioned ibid and will not operate in respect of any other incident that involves commission of an offence.

12. Liberty is reserved in favour of State/complainant to move for cancellation/recall of this order in case the petitioner violates any condition stipulated under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C., 1973 or upon showing any other sufficient cause.

13. Needless to say that anything observed herein above shall not

14. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
