Mr. Kapil Sharma, Advocate for respondent No. 2.

MANISHA BATRA, J. (Oral)

1. The present petition has been filed under Section 482 of Code of Criminal Procedure for quashing of FIR No. 175 dated 29.10.2021, registered under Sections 406 and 498-A of the IPC at Police Station Sadar Hoshiarpur, District Hoshiarpur (Annexure P-1) and all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise dated 20.05.2023 (Annexure P-2).
2. The aforementioned FIR had been lodged by respondent No.2/complainant and investigation was commenced thereon.
3. It is submitted by counsel for the petitioners that a compromise has been arrived at between the parties and they have resolved their inter se dispute, which was reduced into writing as compromise dated 20.05.2023, annexed with the present petition as Annexure P-2.
4. On the basis of said compromise, the petitioners have prayed for quashing of the aforesaid FIR and all the subsequent proceedings on the ground that continuation of such proceedings would be a futile exercise.

5. This Court vide order dated 21.11.2023 had directed the parties to appear before the Illaqua Magistrate/trial Court for recording their statements with regard to the genuineness of the compromise stated to have been arrived at between them. The Illaqua Magistrate/trial Court was also directed to send his/her report along with the said statements. Thereafter, vide order dated 08.01.2024, noticing the fact that the petitioners are abroad, they were granted liberty to get their statement recorded before the trial Court through video conferencing facility.

6. Pursuant to the aforesaid orders, the Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Hoshiarpur has sent report vide endorsement No. 26 dated 22.02.2024 to this Court along with the statement of respondent No. 2, recorded on 18.12.2023. The statements of the petitioners recorded on 09.02.2024 through video conferencing are also attached with the report. The statement of IO/ASI Sewa Das, recorded on 19.12.2023, is also attached.

7. On the basis of these statements, it is submitted by learned Magistrate that the compromise effected between the parties is genuine, out of free Will and without any pressure or coercion. It is also mentioned in the report that apart from the petitioners, there is no other accused in the FIR and that none of the accused persons has been declared a proclaimed person in this case.

8. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and besides perusing the report of the Magistrate/trial Court, have also perused the record.

9. It is well settled that the High Court has power to allow compounding of a non-compoundable offence and quash the prosecution under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. where it feels that the same is required to prevent the abuse of process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. Such power is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone. In this regard, reference can be made to a Full Bench judgment of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others v. State of Punjab, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052. It is equally settled position of law that the power of High Court in quashing criminal proceedings or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation. Such power can certainly be exercised in cases relating to offences arising out of matrimony relating to dowry etc. or the family disputes where the wrong is basically private or personal in nature and the parties have resolved their entire dispute. The High Court is required to consider whether it would be unfair or contrary to the interest of justice to continue with the criminal proceedings or continuation of criminal proceedings would tantamount to abuse of process of law and whether to secure the ends of justice, it is appropriate to put an end to the criminal case and if the answer to such question is in affirmative, then the High Court is well within its jurisdiction to quash the criminal proceedings. Reference in this context can be made to Hon'ble Apex Court judgments cited as Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543 and Narinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab and another, 2014 (6) SCC 466.

10. In view of the proposition as settled in the aforementioned cases, this Court finds that continuation of proceedings would be an abuse process of the Court in the facts and circumstances of the present case which squarely falls within the ambit and parameters settled by judicial precedents and that allowing and accepting the prayer of the petitioners by quashing of the FIR would be securing the ends of justice, which is primarily the object of legislature enacted under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. Accordingly, the petition is allowed and the FIR No. 175 dated 29.10.2021, registered under Sections 406 and 498-A of the IPC at Police Station Sadar Hoshiarpur, District Hoshiarpur (Annexure P-1) and all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, are ordered to be quashed qua the petitioners on the basis of the aforesaid compromise.

11. Needless to say that the parties shall remain bound by the terms and conditions of the compromise and statements as recorded before learned Judicial Magistrate.
