1. Learned counsel for the respondents informs that in terms of order dated 13.01.2021 passed by the Writ Court, no further recovery is being effected from the petitioner, however, as regards the recovery already made, he submits that as the interim direction was never conveyed to the respondent-bank, thus, the same cannot be returned.
2. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and gone through the paper book.
3. Once, vide order dated 13.01.2021 while passing an interim direction, it was ordered that no recovery be effected from the petitioner, any amount deducted thereafter needs to be refunded to the petitioner immediately. Still further, in case any FDR of the petitioner, despite it been matured, has been retained by the respondent-bank, that too, needs to be released to the petitioner, preferably within a period of 04 weeks, so as to purge the contempt.

4. In view of the aforesaid, learned counsel for the petitioner does not want to press the present petition, at this stage.

5. Accordingly, the present petition is dismissed being not pressed. Rule stands discharged.

However, in case the needful is not done within the afore-stated period, the petitioner would be at liberty to seek revival of the present contempt petition and in that eventuality, the erring concerned officer(s) would be liable to pay additional sum of Rs.50,000/- as costs from his/her own pocket in favour of the petitioner towards litigation expenses, immediately, i.e. on the first date of listing of revival application.
