The present revision petition has been filed for setting aside the impugned judgment dated 16.05.2017 passed by the learned District Judge, Family Court, Hisar in MNT case No.151-III of 2016 titled as 'Monika and another Vs. Rohtak,' whereby, the petitioner has been ordered to pay a sum of Rs.1500/- per month each to the respondents as maintenance.

Learned counsel for the respondents, at the very outset, submits that during the pendency of the present revision petition, the petitioner and respondent No.1 have effected a compromise and obtained a decree of divorce by way of mutual consent and they have settled their all pending disputes and thus, the present revision petition has become infructuous.

In view of the above, learned counsel for the petitioner wishes to withdraw the present petition as having been rendered infructuous.

Disposed of as having been rendered infructuous. However, liberty is granted to the parties to revive the present revision petition in case the factual position as submitted by learned counsel for the respondents is found to be incorrect.
