NAVITA SINGH, J.

As per office report, a letter was written to learned counsel for the appellant to supply copy of paper book, which was duly received. However, neither the paper book has been supplied, nor any one has appeared today on behalf of the appellant. The record of the case is totally burnt.

In such circumstances, the appeal is dismissed in default for want of prosecution giving right of revival to the appellant, as per law. Since no one has appeared on behalf of the appellant and there is nothing on record from which the address of the appellant may be traced, copy of the order cannot be sent to the appellant. The Court Master to ensure that disposal of the case is entered in the ISHiCo (Mozilla).
