2. Despite the difficulty expressed by the Bench on the previous date of hearing, learned counsel has not provided the paper-book.

3. In this situation, this Court is left with no other option, except to dismiss the present appeal, as the same being not prosecuted.

Ordered accordingly.

4. However, in case, any substantive issue still exists along with cause of action, requiring its adjudication; liberty is granted to the appellant to move an appropriate application for seeking revival of the present appeal, within eight weeks from today.

5. It is clarified that if any such application is filed for seeking revival of the appeal by the appellant, an advance copy of the application would also be delivered to the opposite counsel i.e. respondent(s), and in case, appeal is revived for its disposal on merits, for no reason, except for the exceptional circumstances, hearing of the appeal would be deferred. Therefore, both the sides should remain present and ready for the purpose of addressing the final arguments.

6. Registry is directed to forward copy of the today’s order at the address of the appellants mentioned in the appeal.
