JAGMOHAN BANSAL, J (ORAL)

1. The petitioners, through instant petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India are seeking protection of their lives and liberty as guaranteed by Article 21 of the Constitution of India.

2. Notice of motion.

3. On the asking of the Court, Mr. S.S. Aulakh, AAG, Punjab, who is present in Court, accepts notice on behalf of respondents No.1 to 3-State. Service of notice to the private respondents is dispensed with as no adverse order is passed against them.

4. As per petition and documents enclosed therewith i.e. Aadhar Card issued by the Government of India, petitioner No. 1- Kamalpreet Kaur is aged 18 years and petitioner No.2- Jaskaran Singh is aged 20 years. The petitioners are residing together.

5. The petitioners have made a representation dated 28.05.2024 (Annexure P-3) to Commissioner of Police, Ludhiana seeking protection of life and liberty. They have no apprehension of causing any injury on the part of the police or other Government authorities whereas they are claiming that there is apprehension that their relatives may cause injury and put their lives to in danger. State is duty bound to protect life and liberty of its citizens.
6. The official respondents are directed to examine the representations of the petitioners and to ensure protection while appreciating the fact that there is threat to their lives. The disposal of present petition shall not be construed as protection to petitioners from their civil or criminal liability which, if any, they have incurred in past or may incur in future. This order further would not legalize their relations, if otherwise not permissible by law.
7. Disposed of.
