IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-29604-2024

Date of Decision : 11.06.2024

BEANT KAUR GREWAL

.....Petitioner

VERSUS

THE STATE OF PUNJAB

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE KULDEEP TIWARI

Present: Mr. Rajesh Gupta, Advocate, for the petitioner

Mr.Pardeep Bajaj, DAG, Punjab.

KULDEEP TIWARI, J.(Oral)

1. The grievance raised through the instant petition by the petitioner is that his revision preferred against order dated 23.05.2024 (Annexure P-10) passed by the learned trial Court concerned, though has been admitted by the learned revisional court concerned, but a long date has been given.

2. He further submits that the petitioner is in urgency to visit Canada (from 01.06.2024 to 31.12.2024), therefore, the learned revisional court concerned, ought to have decided his application on priority instead of adjourning the same for a long date.

3. On a specific query put by this Court to learned counsel for the petitioner, whether any application for preponement of the date of hearing has been filed, to which he answered in negative.

4. Since the petitioner without moving any application seeking preponement of the date of hearing in the revision petition, before the learned revisional court concerned, has preferred the instant petition before this Court, no direction can be passed upon the revisional court. Consequently, the instant petition is dismissed. However, with liberty to the petitioner to file an appropriate application before the learned revisional court concerned, for redressal of his grievance.

5. In case such application is preferred by the present petitioner, the learned revisional court concerned, shall decide the same, in accordance with law.
