State of Punjab and others ...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DEEPAK MANCHANDA

Present: Mr. Ashish Nagar, Advocate for the petitioners.
Mr. Amit Kumar Goyal, Addl. AG Punjab

DEEPAK MANCHANDA J. (ORAL)

The instant petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus directing the official respondents to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners from the private respondents No.3 and 4 and with a further direction to respondents No.1 and 2 to provide security to the petitioners in order to protect their lives and liberties and from bodily harm, harassment, humiliation and torture from respondents No.3 and 4.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners contends that both the petitioners are major. In support thereof, copies of Aadhar Cards pertaining to the petitioners have been appended. Learned counsel for the petitioners further contends that the petitioners are in live-in-relationship, however, respondents No.3 and 4 i.e. family members of petitioner No.1 are against the relationship of the petitioners.

After going through the contents of the representation dated 06.06.2024 (Annexure P-3), the same seems to be vague and half-baked, wherein no specific details have been mentioned.
4.

Faced with this situation, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the present petition be treated as representation and the same be ordered to be decided within a time bound manner by looking into the grievance of the petitioners.
5.

Therefore, without examining the question of legality and validity of the live-in-relationship and expressing any opinion thereon, the petition is disposed of with the directions to respondent No.1-Commissioner of Police, Ludhiana to look into the grievance of the petitioners as set out in the petition and the same be treat as representation and take appropriate action for protection of their lives and liberty as may be warranted by the circumstances in accordance with law.
