CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE DEEPAK MANCHANDA

Present: Mr. Ankit Rana, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Amit Kumar Goyal, Addl. AG Punjab

DEEPAK MANCHANDA J. (ORAL)

The instant petition has been filed under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India for directing the official respondents No.2 and 3 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioners from the respondents No.4 to 7 and not to interfere in their peaceful married life.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners contends that both the petitioners are major. In support thereof, copies of Aadhar Cards pertaining to the petitioners have been appended. The learned counsel for petitioners further contends that they have performed marriage against the wishes of their parents and the marriage of the petitioners was solemnized on 07.06.2024. Copy of Marriage Certificate (Annexure P-3) and copy of photographs of marriage (Annexure P-4) have also been appended. He further contends that the petitioners apprehend threat to their lives and liberty and claim that there is a constant danger of being implicated in a false case and even a representation dated 10.06.2024 (Annexure P-5) has been sent by the petitioners to the respondent No.2-Commissioner of Police, Jalandhar but the same has not been decided till date and the petitioners would be satisfied if the said representation is decided in a time bound manner.

3. After going through the contents of the representation dated 10.06.2024 (Annexure P-5), the same seems to be vague and half-baked, wherein no specific details have been mentioned.

4. Faced with this situation, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the present petition be treated as representation and the same be ordered to be decided within a time bound manner by looking into the grievance of the petitioners.

5. Therefore, without examining the question of legality and validity of the marriage and expressing any opinion thereon, the petition is disposed of with the directions to respondent No.2-Commissioner of Police, Jalandhar to look into the grievance of the petitioners as set out in the petition and the same be treated as representation and take appropriate action for protection of their lives and liberty as may be warranted by the circumstances in accordance with law.

6. The petition is disposed of.
