On the last date of hearing, the following order was passed:-

“On the previous date of hearing, the learned counsel for the appellant(s) stated that the appellant(s) were not in his contact. Notices were issued for the services of the appellant(s) in both the cases. However, the report of the process server says that the appellant(s) could not be found at the address mentioned in the memo of parties.

Learned counsel for the appellant(s) is directed to supply the correct address of the appellant(s), so that attempt could be made to serve them. In case the correct address is not forthcoming, appropriate order will be passed.

A photocopy of this order be placed on the connected file.”

Learned counsel for the appellant states that the appellant is not in his contact. Despite best efforts, the counsel has failed to trace him. So, it is not possible to supply the correct address of the appellant. It is a injury case to the extent of 2%. It appears that the appellant has lost interest in litigation and he is not interested to pursue this matter.

Accordingly, this appeal is ordered to be consigned to the record room and deemed to have been disposed of with liberty to the appellant to get it revived
