Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that although there are allegations in the FIR to the effect that co-accused Gurmeet Singh had inflicted injuries with a Saria on the left hand of the complainant and that petitioner inflicted three injuries on neck, leg and arm of the son of the complainant, but injuries to both the injured would at best attract offences under Sections 323 and 325 IPC, which are bailable. It has further been submitted that instant case in fact is a case of cross version, wherein three persons from the side of accused i.e. mother, father and brother of petitioner also sustained injuries.

Notice of motion for 14.10.2024.
