.....Petitioner

.....Respondent(s)

that the respondents are forcing her to appear in the Type Test though, as the petitioner has been appointed on compassionate grounds hence, she be exempted from the same.

Learned counsel for the respondents submits that appropriate order has already been passed on 31.05.2023 by which, the benefits which are not admissible to a Clerk, who is yet to pass the Type Test, has been made applicable upon the petitioner and the said benefits were ordered to be withdrawn.

Learned counsel for the respondents further submits that after the filing of the petition, the petitioner was given two more chances to clear the Type Test and on both the occasions the petitioner has failed as, in one of the chance, the petitioner did not even appear.

Learned counsel for the petitioner argues that another chance has been offered to the petitioner on 03.09.2024 and in case, the petitioner does not clear in the said chance, the respondents can implement the impugned order qua the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the respondents on instructions from Mr. Deepak Babbar, Planning Officer, Punjab submits that another chance has been allowed in favour of petitioner to clear the Type Test hence, as per the undertaking given by the petitioner and in case the petitioner does not clear in the next chance admissible to her, the order dated 31.05.2023 will be implemented.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that keeping in view the statement of the learned State counsel, the present petition may kindly be disposed of as having been not pressed any further.

Ordered accordingly.

Pending application, if any, also stands disposed of.
