3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 16.04.2024 from Judicial Magistrate, Ist Class, Faridabad, has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

"1. File put up before me being Illaq Magistrate. Parties have turned up in this court in pursuance of order dated 20.03.2024 passed by the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court, Chandigarh in CRM-M-33713-2023.

2 Complainant/victim Madhu Dhingra suffered a statement that the matter has been compromised between her and accused person namely Ravi Dhingra by virtue of compromise dated 31.05.2023 which is already placed in Hon'ble High Court without any ill-will, pressure and coercion from any side. She further stated that said compromise is voluntary and in the welfare and interest of all. She has no objection if the present FIR is quashed against the accused person.

3. The accused person namely Ravi Dhingra also suffered a statement that the matter has been compromised between him and complainant by virtue of compromise dated 31.05.2023 without any ill-will, pressure and coercion from any side. He further stated that said compromise is voluntary and in the welfare and interest of all.

4. Investigating Officer L/HC Sudha, Belt No.2719 suffered a statement that there are only one complainant/victim and one accused in the present case. The accused neither declared proclaimed offender nor involved in any other FIR.

5. With regard to specific directions of the Hon'ble High Court regarding the relevant essentials which have to be observed by the present court, my point wise findings are as below

1) The compromise between the complainant and accused is genuine and voluntary as it is not the result of any undue influence or pressure in any manner and is out of their free will. The complainant and the accused have maintained uniformity in regard to the validity of compromise

2.) There is only one accused in the present case as per the statement of Investigating Officer.

3.) There is only one complainant in the present case as per the statement of Investigating Officer.

4.) None of accused has been declared proclaimed person as per the statement of L.O.

6. Hence, the detailed report is submitted for your kind perusal and information please.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the factum of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioner are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated that he has no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.

- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
 - (iii) The parties have compromised.
 - (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
 - (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition
9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.268 dated 10.12.2019 under Sections 498-A, 323, 328, 506, 34 of IPC, registered at Police Station, Women NIT Faridabad and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 31.05.2023 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioner.
10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
