2 On 01.02.2024, the following order was passed:

“The petitioners have approached this Court seeking quashing of FIR (Annexure P-1) and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom on the basis of a compromise having been effected between the parties.

Notice of motion.

At this stage, Mr. Anup Singh, AAG, Punjab, has put in appearance on behalf of respondent No.1-State of Punjab and accepts notice.

3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 14.02.2024 from ld. JMIC, Batala has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“The Court of undersigned has made the report as desired by your goodself:-

1. As per statement of IO/ASI Ravinder Singh, there is no other accused except the present petitioners, as arrayed in the petition.

2. As per statement of IO/ASI Ravinder Singh, the present case was registered on the statement of complainant Rajwinder Kaur wife of Amarjit Singh, resident of Village Mullianwal, Tehsil Batala, District Gurdaspur and aggrieved Chand Singh has not come present who is also arrayed as party in this petition.

3. As per statement of IO/ASI Ravinder Singh, above-said accused are not proclaimed persons in this case.

4. The compromise is genuine, voluntarily and without any coercion or undue influence between the complainant Rajwinder Kaur and the accused persons. As the respondent No.3 Chand Singh son of Karan Singh, resident of Village Mullianwal, Tehsil Batala, District Gurdaspur, arrayed in the petition, did not come present for recording his statement qua compromise, so, genuineness of compromise qua him could not ascertained.”

4. Learned counsel for respondents No.2 and 3 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-7/T).

6 I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, State of Madhya Pradesh vs. Laxmi Narayan and others (2019) 5 SCC 688, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.*
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.*
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.*
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.*
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that* the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.

(f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.

(g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

8 Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

(i) The present matter does not fall within the exceptions as carved out in Laxmi Narayan's case (supra) i.e. heinous offence.

(ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.

(iii) The parties have compromised.

(iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.

(v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition

9 Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.20 dated

11.03.2023 under Sections 452, 307, 324, 323, 354, 336, 342, 506, 148 and

149 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 and Sections 25 and 27 of the Arms Act,

District Gurdaspur, Punjab and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise/affidavit (Annexure P-7/T), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners, subject to payment of Rs.5,000/- costs by each petitioner which shall be paid within 30 days from today with the Punjab State Legal Services Authority.

10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
