

2152024:PHHC:049227

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP-21700-2016 (O&M)
Date of Decision:10.04.2024

Chander

....Petitioner(s)

Versus

Haryana Power Generation Corporation Ltd. and others

.....Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON’BLE MR. JUSTICE JASGURPREET SINGH PURI

Present: Mr. J.K. Goel, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Padamkant Dwivedi, Advocate, for the respondents.

JASGURPREET SINGH PURI, J. (Oral)

At the outset, learned counsel for the respondents has stated that the benefit of counting of past service has been granted to the petitioner and the arrears of 38 months have already been given to the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has stated that in view of the aforesaid factual position, the present petition may be disposed of as having become infructuous.

Disposed of as having become infructuous.

10.04.2024

rakesh

Whether speaking

Whether reportable

(JASGURPREET SINGH PURI)

JUDGE

:

Yes/No

:

Yes/No