DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (Oral)

1. The present petition has been preferred by the petitioners-Institutes to challenge therein reduction by the respondent-University to the intake capacity of admissions sanctioned by the NCTE for the session 2023-24.
2. Under the interim orders passed by this Court admissions were made by the petitioners-Institutes which were beyond the intake sanctioned by the respondent-University.
3. Learned counsel appearing for the respondent-University submits that since the students admitted under the interim orders of this Court have already studied for one year, the University has decided to consider to regularise these admissions but for the session 2024-25 the University shall reserve its rights to ascertain the eligibility of the petitioners-Institutes for fixing the sanctioned strength and passing appropriate orders, in accordance with law.
4. In the light of the above statement made by learned counsel for respondent-University, learned counsel for the petitioners does not press the instant petition.
5. Dismissed as not pressed.
