SUDHIR SINGH, J. (ORAL)

Challenge in the present appeal is to the order dated 13.08.2021 passed by the Family Court, Gurugram whereby, while dismissing the custody petition filed by the respondent-husband, he was granted visitation rights qua the children of the parties.

The learned counsel of respondent-husband stated that though the respondent-husband has been granted visitation rights by the learned Family Court, yet the respondent-husband does not want to meet the children and he thereby, forgoes such rights.

As the challenge is only to the visitation rights granted to the respondent-husband, we find that in view of the above-statement of learned counsel of the respondent-husband, the present appeal does not survives and the same is disposed of as such.
