In the present petition, grievance being raised by the petitioner is that she is entitled for promotion to the post of Supervisor, which benefit is not being granted to her by the respondents.

As per the respondents, no junior of the petitioner has been promoted and now the petitioner has already retired from service and the promotion cannot be claimed as a matter of right, even if, candidate is fully eligible for the same.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the record with their able assistance.

Consideration for promotion is a right but claim for promotion is not a right. Learned counsel for the petitioner very fairly concedes that no junior of the petitioner has been promoted so as to give right to the petitioner to claim promotion with effect from the date the junior of the petitioner has been promoted. Once, no junior of the petitioner has been promoted upto the date of retirement of the petitioner, claim for promotion cannot be accepted especially when petitioner has already retired from service. No ground for interference by this Court is made out and the present petition is accordingly dismissed.

Civil miscellaneous application pending, if any, is also disposed of.
