He submits that the petitioner was part of unlawful assembly and criminal conspiracy with other co-accused and even though she was not present inside the Emergency ward but she was duly identified by the complainant as the accused person who acted in conspiracy of committing the murder and further her role becomes clear during her interrogation, the petitioner confessed that she instigated all and said that today Sumit should not been spared but he managed to run away and then Sawan Kumar who was in the Emergency Ward was surrounded by them and further that he was given beatings and was left when he was about to die. 6. The State's counsel opposes bail and refers to the status report.

7. It would be appropriate to refer to the following portions of the status report, which read as follows:

“6. That during the course of further investigation on the same day i.e. 18.07.2022 the complainant got recorded his supplementary statement with the police that he has seen the CCTV Camera footage loaded in Pen Drive and then he identified Sanju wearing a black and white T-Shirt, black colour Pajama and slippers in feet as Sanju and the second man and a woman as Rishabh and a woman as Seema as (i.e. the present petitioner) as mother of Sorpi wearing pink Top and black Lower (Pajama) and yellow colour scarf (Chunni).

The complainant also stated that Gagan Kumar and Veeru also came alongwith them and that the murder of his brother-in-law Sawan Kumar has been got committed by the present petitioner in connivance with these accused persons.

Thereupon based upon the supplementary statement of the complainant and evidences that has come on record the present petitioner, Rishabh, Gagan Kumar, Veeru and Sanju were nominated in the above stated FIR vide Special Report dated 18.07.2022 and offence u/s 120-B IPC was also added.

*12. That with respect to this Hon'ble Court order to explain the role of the petitioner, it is submitted the petitioner was part of unlawful assembly and criminal conspiracy with other co-accused and even though she was not present inside the Emergency Ward but she was duly identified by the complainant as the accused person who acted as per the larger conspiracy of committing the murder and further her role becomes interrogation, clear from the fact during her the petitioner confessed that she instigated that today Sumit should not been spared but he managed to run away and then Sawan Kumar who was in the Emergency Ward was surrounded by them and further that he was given beatings and was left when he was about to die and further that the said Sawan Kumar managed to wake-up and then again she called her son and his accomplices that he is alive and should be killed. 13. That with respect to this Hon'ble Court order to detail the evidence against the petitioner, it is submitted that she was duly identified by the complainant as the accused person who acted as per the larger conspiracy of committing the murder and further she confessed that she instigated that today Sumit should not been spared but he managed to run away and then Sawan Kumar who was in the Emergency Ward was surrounded by them and further that he was given beatings and was left when he was about to die and further that the said Sawan Kumar managed to wake-up and then again she called her son and his accomplices by stating that he is alive and should be killed. The petitioner further confessed that thereafter he was again attacked by the Swords and Baseballs by her co-accused on his head, face, legs and arms and was killed on the spot.”

8. The investigation revealed that neither the petitioner entered the hospital nor inflicted any injury. Coupled with this, the primary reason for bail is that the petitioner is a woman.

9. Pre-trial incarceration should not be a replica of post-conviction sentencing. There is sufficient prima facie evidence connecting the petitioner with the alleged crime. However, per paragraph 9 of the bail petition, the petitioner has been in custody since 23.03.2024. Per the custody certificate dated 03.09.2024, the petitioner’s total custody in this FIR is 5 months and 9 days. Given the penal provisions invoked viz-a-viz pre-trial custody, coupled with the prima facie analysis of the nature of allegations, and the other factors peculiar to this case, there would be no justifiability further pre-trial incarceration at this stage.

10. Without commenting on the case's merits, in the facts and circumstances peculiar to this case, and for the reasons mentioned above, the petitioner makes a case for bail. This order shall come into force from the time it is uploaded on this Court's official webpage.

11. Given above, provided the petitioner is not required in any other case, the petitioner shall be released on bail in the FIR captioned above subject to furnishing bonds to the satisfaction of the concerned Court and due to unavailability before any nearest Ilaqa Magistrate/duty Magistrate. Before accepting the surety, the concerned Court must be satisfied that if the accused fails to appear, such surety can produce the accused.

12. While furnishing a personal bond, the petitioner shall mention the following personal identification details:

|    |                                                                                                                                      |  |

| 1. | AADHAR number                                                                                                                        |  |
| 2. | Passport number (If available) and when the attesting officer/court considers it appropriate or considers the accused a flight risk. |  |
| 3. | Mobile number (If available)                                                                                                         |  |
| 4. | E-Mail id (If available)                                                                                                             |  |

13. This order is subject to the petitioner’s complying with the following terms.

14. The petitioner shall be in deemed custody for Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act. The petitioner shall join the investigation as and when called by the Investigating Officer or any Superior Officer and shall cooperate with the investigation at all further stages as required. In the event of failure to do so, the prosecution will be open to seeking cancellation of the bail. During the investigation, the petitioner shall not be subjected to third-degree, indecent language, inhuman treatment, etc.

15. The petitioner shall abide by all statutory bond conditions and appear before the concerned Court(s) on all dates. The petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence, influence, browbeat, pressurize, induce, threaten, or promise, directly or indirectly, any witnesses, Police officials, or any other person acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case or dissuade them from disclosing such facts to the Police or the Court.

16. Given the nature of the allegations and the other circumstances peculiar to this case, the petitioner shall not enter the property, workplace, and residence of the victim until the statements of all non-official and informal witnesses in the trial are recorded. This Court is imposing this condition to rule out any attempt by the accused to incapacitate, influence, or cause any discomfort to the victim. Reference be made to Vikram Singh v Central Bureau of Investigation, 2018 All SCR (CrL.) 458; and Aparna Bhatt v. The State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021:INSC:192, 2021 SCC Online SC 230.

17. Given the background of allegations against the petitioner, it becomes paramount to protect the victim, and their family members, as well as the members of society, and incapacitating the accused would be one of the primary options until the filing of the closure report or discharge, or acquittal. Consequently, it would be appropriate to restrict the possession of firearm(s). [This restriction is being imposed based on the preponderance of evidence of probability and not of evidence of certainty, i.e., beyond reasonable doubt; and as such, it is not to be construed as an intermediate sanction]. Given the nature of the allegations and the other circumstances peculiar to this case, the petitioner shall surrender all weapons, firearms, and ammunition, if any, along with the arms license to the concerned authority within fifteen days from release from prison and inform the Investigator about the compliance. However, subject to the Indian Arms Act, 1959, the petitioner shall be entitled to renew and take it back in case of acquittal in this case, provided otherwise permissible in the concerned rules. Restricting firearms would instill confidence in the victim(s), their families, and society; it would also restrain the accused from influencing the witnesses and repeating the offense.

18. The conditions mentioned above imposed by this court are to endeavor to reform and ensure the accused does not repeat the offense. In Mohammed Zubair v. State of NCT of Delhi, 2022:INSC:735 [Para 28], Writ Petition (Criminal) No 279 of 2022, Para 29, decided on July 20, 2022, A Three-Judge bench of Hon'ble Supreme Court holds that "The bail conditions imposed by the Court must not only have a nexus to the purpose that they seek to serve but must also be proportional to the purpose of imposing them. The courts, while imposing bail conditions must balance the liberty of the accused and the necessity of a fair trial. While doing so, conditions that would result in the deprivation of rights and liberties must be eschewed."

19. Any observation made hereinabove is neither an expression of opinion on the case's merits nor shall the trial Court advert to these comments.
20. A certified copy of this order would not be needed for furnishing bonds, and any Advocate for the Petitioner can download this order along with case status from the official web page of this Court and attest it to be a true copy. If the attesting officer wants to verify its authenticity, such an officer can also verify its authenticity and may download and use the downloaded copy for attesting bonds.
21. Petition allowed in terms mentioned above. All pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
