....Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and Others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMAN CHAUDHARY

Present : Mr. Virender Kumar, Advocate for the petitioner

Mr. Harish Nain, AAG Haryana

AMAN CHAUDHARY. J. (ORAL)

1. It may be accentuated at the outset, that petitioner had applied for the post of Laboratory Technician under the category of DFF-BCA, as is apparent from application form, Annexure P-2, which was submitted on 24.09.2019, pursuant to advertisement dated 07.09.2019, closing date whereof was 09.10.2019.
2. The petitioner was offered appointment, having secured 32 marks, which was the cutoff for ESM-BCA category, however the Commission decided to withdraw his recommendation in absence of any supporting document with regard to the category under which he had applied.
3. The claim of the petitioner made before this Court of having infact, applied for BCA is belied, firstly, from the application form and secondly, had his category been wrongly mentioned as sought to be projected, he would have promptly approached the Commission for rectification thereof, which admittedly, he did not. His representation, in this regard, came about on 11.07.2022 after the entire process had been completed, beginning from declaration of result on

09.09.2021, scrutiny having been conducted thereafter and final result that was declared on 17.03.2022, which culminated in appointment letter issued to him on 10.07.2022. However, even if for the sake of argument, it is to be considered that the petitioner had applied under the BCA category, the final result, appended as Annexure P-4, reveals the cutoff for the same being 57, while that of waiting 56, therefore, he still does not make a mark, his being 32.

4. As a fall out of the above, this Court finds no fault in the order impugned. Accordingly, the present petition being devoid of merit is hereby dismissed.
