IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRR No. 1360-2024

Date of Decision:-24.07.2024

RAVI KUMAR

... Petitioner

Versus

STATE OF HARYANA AND ANOTHER

... Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SANJIV BERRY.

Present:- Mr. S.S.Sahu, Advocate for the petitioner.

SANJIV BERRY, J.(ORAL)

By way of the present petition, petitioner has challenged the impugned order dated 19.04.2024 passed by Additional Sessions Judge, Fatehabad in CRA No.124/2024 titled as Ravi Kumar vs. State of Haryana and others” whereby the petitioner was directed to pay 20% of the compensation awarded by the learned trial Court on the date fixed i.e. 25.07.2024, as a condition for suspension of sentence.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner inter alia contended that the impugned order has been passed by learned appellate Court in an illegal and arbitrary manner without considering the facts and circumstances and while admitting the appeal and considered the application under Section 389 Cr.P.C moved by the petitioner for suspension of sentence, the learned appellate Court has erroneously directed the petitioner to pay 20% of the compensation amount on the date fixed i.e. 25.07.2024 as a condition for grant of suspension of sentence in a utter disregard to the law laid down by

Hon’ble Supreme Court in Jamboo Bhandari vs. M.P. State Industrial Development Corporation Ltd. & Ors., 2023 (10) SCC 446; to the effect that imposition of the condition of 20% for deposit of compensation amount is not a absolute rule and the learned appellate Court should have considered the exceptional circumstances for waiving off the said condition to which no opportunity was given to the petitioner before imposing the aforesaid condition. He has also referred to the judgment of Hon'ble Apex Court passed in Rakesh Ranjan Shrivastava vs. The State of Jharkhand & Anr, Law Finder Id#2521123; hence he prays for quashing of the impugned order dated 19.04.2024 passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Fatehabad.

3. From the perusal of record, it transpires that a criminal complaint under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act was filed by the respondent against the petitioner wherein he was summoned to face trial on the allegations that the petitioner had purchased 350 pieces of pharma pipes amounting to ₹4,33,650/- and X-angle amounting to ₹5,20,899/- on 11.05.2019 from the complainant and in discharge of his liability petitioner had issued cheque No. 045297 dated 23.05.2019 amounting to ₹9,54,549/-in favour of the complainant which on presentation was dishonoured by the Bank with the remarks "Insufficient Fund". After conclusion of trial, learned Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Ratia convicted the petitioner vide judgment dated 20.03.2024 and order of sentence dated 22.03.2024 and aggrieved by the same the petitioner had filed the appeal bearing No. CRA/124/2024 pending in the Court of learned Additional Sessions Judge, Fatehabad. The learned appellate Court while admitting the appeal has granted concession of suspension of sentence but with the condition that the petitioner will pay 20% of the compensation on the next date fixed for hearing i.e. on 25.07.2024.

4. Considering the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner in the light of facts and circumstances of the present case, it is worth mentioning here that the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jamboo Bhandari's case (supra) had observed as under:-

“6. What is held by this Court is that a purposive interpretation should be made of Section 148 of the N.I. Act. Hence, normally, Appellate Court will be justified in imposing the condition of deposit as provided in Section 148. However, in a case where the Appellate Court is satisfied that the condition of deposit of 20% will be unjust or imposing such a condition will amount to deprivation of the right of appeal of the appellant, exception can be made for the reasons specifically recorded.

7. Therefore, when Appellate Court considers the prayer under Section 389 of the Cr.P.C. of an accused who has been convicted for offence under Section 138 of the N.I. Act, it is always open for the Appellate Court to consider whether it is an exceptional case which warrants grant of suspension of sentence without imposing the condition of deposit of 20% of the fine/compensation amount. As stated earlier, if the Appellate Court comes to the conclusion that it is an exceptional case, the reasons for coming to the said 4 conclusion must be recorded.”

5. Further, it is apt to mention here that Hon'ble Apex Court in Rakesh Ranjan Shrivastava's case (supra) while dealing with the similar preposition had held that the power under Section 143A (1) of the Negotiable Instrument Act is discretionary. This provision is discretionary not mandatory. It has further been laid down there in that while deciding prayer made under Section 143A of the Act, the Court must record brief reasons indicating consideration of all relevant factors. The Hon'ble Supreme court has further laid down broad parameters for exercising such discretion.

6. The perusal of the aforesaid judgments would reveal that the learned appellate Court was required to consider as to whether the present case of the petitioner falls in the exception or not. Further it has also been specifically laid down therein that it was erroneous premise that the deposit of minimum 20% of the amount is an absolute rule which does not accommodate any exception.

7. The learned appellate Court while passing the impugned order had not discussed or considered as to whether the case of the petitioner falls within the exception or not and had mechanically imposed the deposit of 20% compensation amount as a condition for suspension of sentence of the petitioner.

8. As a consequent, the impugned order dated 19.04.2024 passed by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Fatehabad is hereby set aside to the extent of imposition of condition qua deposit of 20% compensation amount and the matter is remanded back to the learned appellate Court to re-examine the case after granting an opportunity to the petitioner to make submissions regarding the exceptional circumstances, which warrant waiver of the requirement of deposit of 20% of the compensation amount in the light of the judgment passed by Hon’ble Supreme Court in Jamboo Bhandari’s case (supra).

9. However, any observation made above shall not be construed as opinion of this Court on the merits of the case and is only meant for the purpose of decision of present Revision petition.

10. The instant petition is disposed of, in above terms.
