

CRM-M-35388-2024(O&M)
Date of Decision: 31.07.2024

...Respondent

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the FIR was initially registered against unknown persons and the petitioner has been falsely involved in the present case only on the basis of suspicion. He further contends that in the present case, challan has already been presented against him and the conclusion of the trial may take quite a long time as no witness has been examined so far.

4. On the other hand, learned State counsel has vehemently opposed the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner on the ground that serious allegations have been levelled against the present petitioner and he does not deserve the concession of bail by this Court.

5. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

6. The petitioner was arrested in the present case on 01.05.2024 and is in custody since then. Apart from that, the final report under Section 173 Cr.P.C. has already been presented and the trial is yet formally commenced against the petitioner. Moreover, the petitioner is the first offender and no purpose will be served by keeping him behind bars.

7. Without commenting on the merits of the case, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate/Chief Judicial Magistrate, concerned.
