1. Challenge in the present appeal is to the award dated 22.04.2011 passed by the Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Sirsa vide which recovery rights have been given to respondent No.1-Insurance Company on the ground that the driving licence was not placed on the record.
2. During the pendency of the present appeal, the driving licence (Ex.P-1) was placed on the record as additional evidence by way of an application being CM-10356-CII-2012.
3. Learned counsel for respondent No.1-Insurance Company states that the driving licence (Ex.P-1) has since been verified and the same was found to be valid at the time of the accident.
