Versus

State of Haryana and othersRespondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SUDHIR SINGH
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE KARAMJIT SINGH

Present: Mr. Sanjeev Majra, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Manish Dadwal, AAG, Haryana.

SUDHIR SINGH,J. (ORAL)

By way of the present Criminal Writ Petition, the petitioner seeks issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus directing respondent No.4-Superintendent, Central Jail-1, District Hisar, to decide his representation dated 15.07.2024 (Annexure P-1) seeking extension of parole for a period of six weeks, on the ground of medical emergency, arisen due to the accident of his pregnant wife.

2. Vide order dated 22.07.2024, notice of motion was issued and the matter was posted for today.
3. The petitioner is a convict and is undergoing life imprisonment in FIR No.686 dated 16.07.2018, under Sections 147, 148, 149, 302 IPC and Section 25 of the Arms Act, registered at Police Station, Sadar Hisar, District Hisar. Presently, the petitioner is confined in Central Jail-1, Hisar.

4. It is the case of the petitioner that he has already been granted a regular parole for a period of 70 days, which was initiated on 16.05.2024 and the said period will come to an end on 25.07.2024, when the petitioner is scheduled to surrender back to the Jail Authorities. It is further submitted that wife of the petitioner, who is six months' pregnant, has suffered an accident and therefore, in view of the said emergency, the petitioner requires further parole for a period of six weeks. The petitioner has enclosed the medical history of his wife along with the present writ petition.

5. Learned State counsel, on instructions from the concerned authorities, does not dispute the factum of medical condition of the wife of the petitioner and therefore, has no objection in case the parole, already granted to the petitioner, is extended for a period of six weeks.

6. Though the petitioner has sought direction to the jail authorities i.e. respondent No.4- Superintendent, Central Jail-1, District Hisar, to decide his representation for extension of parole, yet in view of the fact that the medical condition of the wife of the petitioner has not been disputed by the learned State counsel and the fact that the petitioner has to surrender to the jail authorities on 25.07.2024 i.e. tomorrow, we are of the opinion that the present writ petition can be disposed of by extending the parole of the petitioner for further six weeks.

7. In view of the above, we dispose of the present petition with a direction that the parole, already granted to the petitioner by the jail authorities, shall stand extended for another six weeks commencing from 25.07.2024 i.e. the date on which, the petitioner has to surrender before the jail authorities. The date of release and surrender shall be noted by the jail authorities.

8. All the pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of.
