

COCP-2433-2024 (O&M)
Decided on:-12.11.2024

VS.

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARKESH MANUJA

Mr. Vaishnav Gandhi, DAG, Punjab.

1. Learned counsel for the respondents, on instructions, informs that the appointment letter has been issued to the petitioner and upon necessary verification, the consequential steps including the release of arrears shall be undertaken within a period of two weeks from today.
2. In view of the aforesaid undertaking, learned counsel for the petitioner does not want to press the present petition.
3. Accordingly, the present petition is dismissed being not pressed. Rule stands discharged.
4. However, in case the needful is not done within the afore-stated period, as per undertaking, the petitioner would be at liberty to seek revival of the present contempt petition and in that eventuality, the erring concerned officer(s) would be liable to pay additional sum of Rs.50,000/- as costs from his/her own pocket in favour of the petitioner towards litigation expenses, immediately, i.e. on the first date of listing of revival application.
