Mr. Gaurav Goel, Advocate

Mr. Siddharth Sandhu, Asstt. A.G., Punjab.

Mr. Puneet Singla, Advocate for respondent No.2.

HARKESH MANUJA, J. (Oral)

[1]. By way of present petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., prayer has been made for quashing of FIR No.125 dated 21.03.2011 registered under Sections 323, 324, 341, 379, 148 and 149 IPC at Police Station Sadar, Patiala District Patiala (Annexure P-1) and all other subsequent proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise (Annexure P-2).

[2]. As per the allegations levelled in the FIR, the petitioners have caused injuries to the complainant along with others. As per FIR, there were five accused including present petitioners. The accused Rahul has been declared as a proclaimed offender.

[4]. In pursuance to order dated 14.09.2022 passed by this Court, whereby the parties were directed to appear before the *Illaq*a Magistrate/Trial Court for getting their statements recorded as regards the veracity of compromise arrived at between them, a report dated 01.12.2022 has been received from the concerned court, stating that the compromise is genuine, voluntary and without any coercion or undue influence. The petitioners-accused except one Rahul have not been declared as proclaimed offenders.

[5]. Once, the compromise has been arrived at between the parties without any pressure and respondent No.2 having no objection as regards quashing of FIR as well as all other subsequent proceedings arising out of the same against the petitioners; there does not appear to be any impediment as regards quashing of present FIR qua the petitioners. Even otherwise, in order to maintain peace and harmony between the parties, particularly under the present circumstances wherein the alleged offences have no societal interest involved, it would be appropriate to render complete quietus to the aforementioned dispute by quashing the FIR on the basis of compromise entered into between the parties.

[6]. The parties having settled their dispute so as to live in peace in future, no useful purpose would be served by proceeding further with the criminal proceedings. In the light of above developments, no cause remains for the Trial Court to invest further time and effort in adjudicating this FIR. The compromise in question is even found to be fully in consonance with the direction issued by the Court in the case(s) of Kulwinder Singh & Ors. Vs. State of Punjab 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab & Anr., 2012(4) RCR (Crl.) 543.

[7]. Further, learned counsel for the petitioners, while placing reliance upon the judgments passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Jayrajsingh Digvijaysinh Rana Vs. State of Gujarat and another, 2012(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 589 and this Court in the case(s) of Joginder Singh & another Vs. State of Punjab and another, passed in CRM-M No.23739 of 2010 decided on 27.04.2011, Rajinder Singh Vs. State of Punjab & another, passed in CRM-M No.37395 of 2016 decided on 16.05.2017 and Vimal Kalra & others Vs. State of Punjab & another, passed in CRM-M No.20355 of 2022, decided on 25.07.2022 submits that partial quashing of the FIR is possible on the basis of a compromise.

[8]. Thus, in view of the aforesaid facts, accompanied by statements of both the parties as well as keeping in mind the law laid down in the aforementioned judgments, the FIR No.125 dated 21.03.2011 registered under Sections 323, 324, 341, 379, 148 and 149 IPC at Police Station Sadar, Patiala District Patiala as well as all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom are hereby quashed qua the petitioners.

[9]. Accordingly, petition stands allowed however subject to payment of cost(s) of Rs.10,000/- to be deposited by the petitioners to be deposited in the Poor Patients Welfare Fund of the PGIMER, Chandigarh, within a period of two weeks from today.
