.....Petitioner

.....Respondent(s)

In the present petition, the prayer of the petitioner is that the medical reimbursement bills, which have been submitted are not being reimbursed and without any valid justification despite the fact that various representations and legal notices have already been served upon the respondent. Prayer of the petitioner is for directing them to release the medical reimbursement in respect of the treatment taken by the daughter of the petitioner, who is suffering from a complicated chronic disease called “Thalassemia Major”.
