The present petition has been filed under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 for the quashing of FIR No.178 dated 19.06.2022 under Sections 323, 34, 406, 498-A, 506 of IPC, registered at Police Station Bass, Tehsil Hansi, District Hisar and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 25.04.2024 (Annexure P-2), which is stated to have been effected between the parties.

2 On 01.08.2024, the following order was passed:

“The petitioner has approached this Court seeking quashing of FIR (Annexure P-1) and all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom on the basis of a compromise having been effected between the parties.

(iii) Whether any accused has been declared Proclaimed Offender?

The report be submitted before this Court before the next date of hearing i.e. 02.09.2024."

3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 13.08.2024 from Judicial Magistrate, Ist Class, Hansi, has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“(i) As per the statement of the IO L/ASI Poonam and records of the case file in the present case, accused Sandeep son of Hoshiar Singh resident of Pega, Jind is the only accused and no other accused has been arrayed in the instant case. Except this case, no other case is pending against the accused Sandeep. Accused Sandeep has not been declared a proclaimed person/offender.

(ii) With regard to the report sought by the Hon'ble High Court, it is most respectfully submitted that the undersigned is satisfied with regard to the genuineness and voluntariness of the compromise and that the same is not result of any pressure or coercion in any manner. Both the parties have suffered their separate statements in the presence of their respective counsels regarding their compromise voluntarily. There is no other accused except Sandeep and there is other complainant or affected aggrieved party other than Sonu in the present case. No accused has been declared proclaimed person.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the factum of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioner are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated that he has no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and

Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 528 of BNSS, 2023 to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
 - (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
 - (iii) The parties have compromised.
 - (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
 - (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition
9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.178 dated 19.06.2022 under Sections 323, 34, 406, 498-A, 506 of IPC, registered at Police Station Bass, Tehsil Hansi, District Hisar and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 25.04.2024 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioner.
10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
