The petitioner herein has approached this Court claiming that acquisition of land in question has lapsed in view of Section 24(2) of the Right to Fair Compensation and Transparency in Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013 (for brevity, 'the 2013 Act').

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that neither the compensation for the acquired land has been paid nor the physical possession of the land has been taken. The notifications for acquisition of the said land under Section 4 and 6 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 were issued on 17.11.2005 and 7.2.2006, respectively. Award was announced by the Land Acquisition Collector on 2.3.2006.

Learned counsel for the State does not dispute the fact that the petitioner has not been paid the compensation for the acquired land, which according to him, is lying with the Land Acquisition Collector. However, it is stated that the possession of the land was taken and release thereof will affect the planning of the plots.

Heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the paper book.

Section 24(2) of the 2013 Act provides that acquisition of land would lapse in cases where award had been announced by the Collector five years prior to the enactment of the 2013 Act i. e. 1.1.2014, in case either the compensation for the acquired land has not been paid or the possession thereof had not been taken.

In the case in hand, it is the admitted position on record that the petitioner has not been paid the amount of compensation for the acquired land.

Once it is the admitted position that compensation for the acquired land has not been paid to the petitioner, in our view, the ingredients as laid down in Section 24(2) of the 2013 Act having been satisfied, acquisition of land owned by the petitioner has lapsed.

However, the State shall be at liberty to either initiate fresh proceedings for acquisition of land or negotiate with the landowners for purchasing/retaining the land in accordance with law, in case the land in question is required for completion of any project or otherwise. The petitioner shall maintain status quo regarding the land in question for a period of six months to enable the State to take decision.

The writ petition is disposed of accordingly.
