PANKAJ JAIN, J. (ORAL)

1This order shall dispose off above mentioned two petitions.

2CRM-M-58440 of 2023 has been filed under Section 439
Cr.P.C. for grant of regular bail in case F.I.R. No.104 dated 21.08.2022 registered under Sections 22/25/29 of NDPS Act at Police Station
Barnala, District Barnala.

3 As per the case of the prosecution, the co-accused Bagga Ram was apprehended along with Kaku Singh. On search 625 loose intoxicant tablets while 20 strips of TRAMWEL SR 100 amounting to 200 intoxicant tablets were recovered. Thereafter on disclosure made by Kaku Singh, present petitioner has been nominated.

4 Petitioner is behind bars for more than 6 months & 11 days. Challan already stands presented. Most of the witnesses are official witnesses, thus there can not be any apprehension that the petitioner shall tamper with the evidence.

5 Custody certificate by way of affidavit of Samandeep Kaur, Deputy Superintendent of Women Jail, Ludhiana on behalf of State has been filed. The same is taken on record. As per the custody certificate, the petitioner has 3 more cases.

6 However, keeping in view the nature of evidence in the present case, and the fact that apart from the disclosure which is hit by dictum of law laid down by Supreme Court in Tofan Singh Vs. State of Tamil Nadu, (2021) 4 SCC 1 there is no incriminating evidence against the petitioner, the present petition is allowed.

CRM-M-39055-2023

1 CRM-M-39055 of 2023 has been filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C. for grant of regular bail in case F.I.R. No.104 dated 21.08.2022 registered under Sections 22/25/29 of NDPS Act at Police Station Barnala, District Barnala.

2 Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is behind bars for more than 1 years, 5 months and 24 days.

Despite the fact that the charges were framed on 19.12.2022 by now only 1 witness has been examined. Though there is another case pending against the petitioner but the same relates to small quantity wherein the petitioner has earned bail.

3 Custody certificate by way of affidavit of Kulwinder Singh, Superintendent of District Jail Barnala on behalf of State has been filed. The same is taken on record.

4 Learned counsel for the petitioner relies upon order passed by Apex Court in the case of Rabi Prakash Vs. The State of Odisha passed in Special Leave to Appeal (Crl.) No(s). 4169 of 2023 decided on 13.07.2023 wherein it has been held as under :-

“4. As regard to the twin conditions contained in Section 37 of the NDPS Act, learned counsel for the respondent – State has been duly heard. Thus, the 1st condition stands complied with. So far as the 2nd condition re: formation of opinion as to whether there are reasonable grounds to believe that the petitioner is not guilty, the same may not be formed at this stage when he has already spent more than three and a half years in custody. The prolonged incarceration, generally militates against the most precious fundamental right guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution and in such a situation, the conditional liberty must override the statutory embargo created under Section 37(1)(b)(ii) of the NDPS Act.”

5 Earlier to Rabi Prakash's case supra also Apex Court has consistently held that the prolonged incarceration has to be considered de hors bar contained under Section 37 of the NDPS Act. The Supreme Court in order dated 22.08.2022 passed by the Supreme Court in Special Leave to Appeal (Crl.) No.5530-2022 titled as "Mohammad Salman Hanif Shaikh Vs. The State of Gujarat, had held as under:-

"We are inclined to release the petitioner on bail only on the ground that he has spent about two years in custody and conclusion of trial will take some time.

Consequently, without expressing any views on the merits of the case and taking into consideration the custody period of the petitioner, this special leave petition is accepted and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing the bail bonds to the satisfaction of the Special Judge/ concerned Trial Court.

The special leave petition is, accordingly, disposed of in the above terms.

Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of."

6 The above-said case was also a case under the NDPS Act, 1985 and the FIR had been registered under Sections 8(c), 21(c) and 29 of the said Act. The case of the prosecution therein was that the recovery from the said petitioner (therein) was of commercial quantity. The Supreme Court had observed that the concession of bail was granted to the petitioner (therein) only on the ground that he had spent about two years in custody and the conclusion of trial will take some time.

7 Supreme Court in order dated 07.02.2020 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Criminal Appeal No.245/2020 titled as "Chitta Biswas Alias Subhas Vs. The State of West Bengal" was pleased to grant concession of bail to the petitioner (therein) in a case where the custody was of 1 year and 7 months approximately. The relevant portion of the said order dated 07.02.2020 is as under: -

"Leave granted.

This appeal arises out of the final Order dated 30.7.2010 passed by the High Court of Calcutta in CRM No.6787 of 2019.

The instant matter arises out of application preferred by the appellant under Section 439 Cr.P.C. seeking bail in connection with Criminal Case No.146 of 2018 registered with Taherpur Police Station for offence punishable under Section 21-C of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985.

According to the prosecution, the appellant was found to be in possession of narcotic substance i.e. 46 bottles of phensydryl cough syrup containing codeine mixture above commercial quantity.

The appellant was arrested on 21.07.2018 and continues to be in custody. It appears that out of 10 witnesses cited to be examined in support of the case of prosecution four witnesses have already been examined in the trial.

Without expressing any opinion on the merits or demerits of the rival submissions and considering the facts and circumstances on record, in our view, case for bail is made out. We therefore, allow this appeal and direct as under:

8 In order dated 05.08.2022 passed by the Supreme Court in Criminal Appeal No.1169 of 2022 titled as "Gopal Krishna Patra @ Gopalrusma Vs. Union of India," the Supreme Court was pleased to observe as under: -

"Leave granted.

Crime No.02/2020 in respect of offences punishable under Sections 8, 20, 27-AA, 28 read with 29 of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985.

The application seeking relief of bail having been rejected, the instant appeal has been filed.

We have heard Mr. Ashok Kumar Panda, learned Senior

Advocate in support of the appeal and Mr. Sanjay Jain, learned Additional Solicitor General for the respondent.

Considering the facts and circumstances on record and the length of custody undergone by the appellant, in our view the case for bail is made out.

We therefore, direct that:

(a) The appellant shall be produced before the Trial Court within five days from today.

(b) The Trial Court shall release the appellant on bail subject to such conditions as the Trial Court may deem appropriate to impose.

(c) The appellant shall not in any manner misuse his liberty.

"As per the office report dated 29.07.2022, copy of the show cause notice along with Special Leave Petition was supplied to the Standing Counsel for the State of West Bengal and separate notice has been served on the State also. However, no one has entered appearance on their behalf.

The Special Leave Petition is disposed of on the aforesaid terms.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of."
