3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 29.08.2024 from

Chief Judicial Magistrate, Hoshiarpur, has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“It is humbly submitted that as per order of the Hon'ble High Court dated 05.08.2024 in CRM-M-37381 of 2024, parties were directed to appear before the Trial Court/Illaq Magistrate for recording their respective statements with regard to compromise/settlement and the Trial Court/ Illaq Magistrate was directed to submit a report on or before next date of hearing containing information regarding the fact that whether the compromise arrived between the parties is genuine; whether there is any other accused other than the petitioners, arrayed in this petition; whether there is any other complainant or affected / aggrieved party other than the respondents, arrayed in the petition: Whether any accused has been declared proclaimed offender?

Accordingly, in compliance of the aforesaid order of the Hon'ble Punjab & Haryana High Court, the complainant/respondent No.2 Shakun Badhan appeared in the Court on 21.08.2024 for recording her statement. Whereas accused/petitioner namely Rakesh Kumar got recorded his statement through Video Conferencing in the presence of his counsel Sh.Rakesh Marwaha, Advocate on 21.08.2024. Sh. Naresh Kumar attorney of accused/petitioner Rakesh Kumar has also appeared on 21.08.2024 and recorded his statement with regard to compromise.

As per the statements suffered by the parties i.e. the complainant and the accused/petitioner, they have compromised the matter, voluntarily, without any coercion or undue influence and the compromise was effected between the parties as per their free will and consent. They have also placed on record written compromise dated 05.07.2024 as Mark A, Copy of passport of Rakesh Kumar bearing No. PB-489201 Annexure-B, Copy of power of attorney given by accused/petitioner Rakesh Kumar in favour of his brother Naresh Kumar as Annexure-C, copy of bank receipt of Rs. 50,000/- Annexure- D and copies of their Adhar cards. Further I.O ASI Balwinder Kaur appeared on 28.08.2024 and suffered statement that the present case was registered on the statement of complainant Shakun Badhan. There is no other affected/aggrieved party other than respondent Shakun Badhan.

There is only one accused namely Rakesh Kumar in the present FIR and he has not been declared as Proclaimed Offender.

Therefore, in light of the statements suffered by the parties and as per the terms of the compromise effected between them, it appears that the parties have entered into a genuine compromise as per their free will and without any undue influence, there is only one accused namely Rakesh Kumar arrayed in the present FIR and he has not been declared as proclaimed offender and there is no other complainant or affected/aggrieved party other than the respondent No.2 Shakun Badhan.

Hence, proper compliance has been made of the order of Hon'ble High Court Punjab & Haryana as stated above. The requisite report is presented in this regard for the kind perusal of your goodself for onward transmission to the Hon'ble High Court.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the factum of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioner are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated that he has no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

The statutory provision of Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 is same as the statutory provision of Section 482 of Cr.P.C., 1973. Therefore, the above said principles of law would apply to a petition under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 as well.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 528 of BNSS, 2023 to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.71 dated 08.03.2023 under Section 498-A of IPC, registered at Police Station City Hoshiarpur, District Hoshiarpur and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 05.07.2024 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioner.

10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
