SUMEET GOEL, J.

1. By way of present petition, the petitioners are seeking quashing of FIR No.0052 dated 04.11.2017 under Sections 498-A, 406 of IPC, registered at Police Station, Women Bathinda, District Bathinda and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise (Annexure P-2), which is stated to have been effected between the parties.

2. On 31.01.2024, the following order was passed:

3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 02.03.2024 from Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Bathinda has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“It is respectfully submitted that in pursuance to order dated 31.01.2024 passed by the Hon'ble High Court in CRM-M No. 44837 of 2021 titled as "Jagdeep Singh & anr. Vs. State of Punjab and others", statements of complainant/affected/aggrieved person, her mother and accused persons with regard to compromise were recorded in the Court. Even statement of Inspector Jagdev Singh, No. 8/BTI, Investigating officer was also recorded in the Court.

After going through the statements made by complainant/affected/aggrieved person namely Navdeep Kaur, her mother Raghubinder Kaur and accused persons namely Jagdeep Singh and Jasvir Singh @Jagsir Singh and by Inspector Jagdev Singh, No. 8/BTI, Investigating officer, the following report as desired by the Hon'ble High Court is submitted:

1) All the affected parties have entered into compromise and the said compromise between the parties is valid and genuine and it is voluntarily.

2) There is no other complainant or affected/aggrieved party in this case except respondent No.2 Navdeep Kaur arrayed in the quashing petition before the Hon'ble High Court;

3) No accused has been declared as proclaimed offender.

This report along with copies of statements of parties and annexure submitted as desired by the Hon'ble High Court vide its order dated 31.01.2024."

4. Learned counsel for respondent Nos.2 and 3 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.*
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.*
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.*
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.*
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.*
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.*
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the* accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.*
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.*
- (iii) The parties have compromised.*
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.*
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.*

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.0052 dated 04.11.2017 under Sections 498-A, 406 of IPC, registered at Police Station, Women Bathinda, District Bathinda and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.
