LISA GILL, J (ORAL)

1 Additional affidavit in CM-4350-LPA-2024 of appellant No.1, filed in Court today, is taken on record, subject to just exceptions.

2 Learned counsel for appellants submits that LPA No.1224 of 2023 and other connected appeals arising out of order dated 24.05.2023, which is impugned in this appeal as well have been allowed by Co-ordinate Bench vide decision dated 26.07.2024. A batch of sixty three writ petitions had been decided vide common impugned order dated 24.05.2023.

3 Impugned order dated 24.05.2023 has been set aside in LPA No.1224 of 2023 & others and respondents directed to decide the claim of said appellant(s) in terms of observations in the said decision within a period of two weeks. The operative portion of above said decision dated 26.07.2024 reads as under:-

‘46. The appeals are allowed. The impugned order is quashed and set aside. The respondent concerned is directed to in terms of the above interpretation made by this Court, decide within a period of two weeks from today, thus the representation(s)/claims of the appellants, relating to their amenability qua assigning qua them the relaxation in the upper age, thus in terms of Rule 19 of the 1994 Rules, and, to within a week thereafter, after completion of all codal formalities, but only if the names of the present appellants occur in the merit list/selection zone, to issue them appointment letters.
47. Since the main case(s) itself has been decided, thus, all the pending application(s), if any, also stand(s) disposed of.’

4 It is further submitted that delay in some of the appeals decided vide decision dated 26.07.2024 had also been condoned.

5 Learned counsel for respondents-State fairly states that appeals arising out of common impugned order dated 24.05.2023 have been allowed in favour of the appellants as above and that no distinction as such on merits can be carved out in the present appeal.

6 Keeping in view the facts and circumstances as above, delay in filing the appeal is condoned and present appeal is allowed in same terms as decision dated 26.07.2024 in LPA No.1224 of 2023.
