

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

231

CRM-M-42141-2022

Date of Decision: 16.04.2024

Navdeep Singh

.... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and another

.... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NIDHI GUPTA

Present: - Mr. Aman Mittal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. S.S. Chahal, AAG, Punjab.

Mr. Sanjay Gahlawat, Advocate for respondent No. 2.

NIDHI GUPTA, J. (ORAL)

The petitioner who is husband of complainant-respondent No. 2 herein, has filed the present petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., for quashing of FIR No. 205 dated 30.07.2017 (Annexure P-1) registered under Sections 498-A, 406 and 506 IPC at Police Station City Khanna, District Khanna and all the consequential proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise dated 05.09.2022 (Annexure P-2).

Pursuant to the order dated 23.03.2023 passed by a co-ordinate Bench of this Court, the parties appeared before the learned Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Khanna, to get their statements recorded. Learned Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Khanna, has submitted his report along with statements of the parties vide letter dated 26.04.2023 duly forwarded by the learned District and Sessions Judge, Ludhiana.

A perusal of the above said report would show that the petitioner and respondent No. 2 have appeared and suffered statements with respect to the compromise which have been found to be valid, voluntary, genuine and true.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the present FIR emanates from the matrimonial dispute between the parties. It is submitted that the matter has been amicably settled between the parties. Further, it is submitted that the petitioner is the only accused in the present case and he has never been declared as proclaimed offender.

Learned counsel for the parties are ad idem that the petitioner and respondent No. 2-complainant are now residing together as husband and wife.

Learned State counsel has stated that he has 'no objection' in case the FIR is quashed on the basis of compromise qua the petitioner.

This Court has heard the learned counsel for the parties and has perused the file.

After perusing the report submitted by the learned Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Khanna, this Court finds that the matter has been amicably settled between the petitioner and respondent No. 2. Since the matter has been settled and the parties have decided to live in peace, this Court feels that in order to secure the ends of justice, the criminal proceedings deserve to be quashed.

As per the Full Bench judgment of this Court in "Kulwinder Singh and others Vs State of Punjab", 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, it is held that High Court has power under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to allow the compounding of non-compoundable offence and quash the proceedings where the High Court is of the opinion that the same is required to prevent the abuse of the process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. This power of quashing is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone.

Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of “Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and another”, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543, had also observed that in order to secure the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of process of Court, inherent power can be used by this Court to quash criminal proceedings in which a compromise has been effected. The relevant portion of para 57 of the said judgment is reproduced here-in-below:-

“57. The position that emerges from the above discussion can be summarised thus: the power of the High Court in quashing a criminal proceeding or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is distinct and different from the power given to a criminal court for compounding the offences under Section 320 of the Code. Inherent power is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation but it has to be exercised in accord with the guideline engrafted in such power viz; (i) to secure the ends of justice or (ii) to prevent abuse of the process of any Court.”

In view of what has been discussed here-in-above, this petition is allowed and FIR No. 205 dated 30.07.2017 (Annexure P-1) registered under Sections 498-A, 406 and 506 IPC at Police Station City Khanna, District Khanna and all the consequential proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise dated 05.09.2022 (Annexure P-2), are ordered to be quashed qua the petitioner.
