AT CHANDIGARH

CRM M-38668 of 2024
Date of Decision: 09.08.2024

Baldev Singh @ Baldev Beniwal ...Petitioner

Vs.

State of Haryana and another ...Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE N.S.SHEKHAWAT

Present : Mr. Raman Chawla, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Ms. Sheenu Sura, DAG, Haryana.

N.S.SHEKHAWAT, J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. with a prayer to quash the impugned order dated 11.04.2022 (Annexure P-3) passed by the Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Hisar and FIR No. 502 dated 20.05.2022 under Section 174-A IPC registered at Police Station HTM Hisar, District Hisar, (Annexure P-1) and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that respondent No. 2 had filed a criminal complaint bearing CIS No. NACT-1909-2018 titled as “Mahindra and Mahindra Finance Vs. Baldev Beniwal”, under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act 1881 (hereinafter to be referred as 'the Act') against the present petitioner. In fact, after the summoning order was passed, the petitioner was never served in the present case. Even, neither the summons nor the warrants of arrest issued by the trial Court were served personally on the present petitioner and ultimately, vide order dated 11.04.2022, the petitioner was ordered to be declared as proclaimed person. Thereafter, in compliance of the impugned order dated 11.04.2022 (Annexure P-3), the FIR No. 502 dated 20.05.2022 under Section 174-A IPC Police Station HTM Hisar, District Hisar, (Annexure P-1) was ordered to be registered against the present petitioner.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that after the registration of the FIR, the petitioner came to know about the pendency of the complaint against him and he compromised the matter with respondent No. 2. Consequently, the case was compromised and the respondent No. 2 had withdrawn the complaint on 20.01.2023 from the Court of Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Hisar, vide order dated 20.01.2023 (Annexure P-4). Learned counsel further contends that since the very purpose of the impugned FIR was to procure the presence of the petitioner and since the main matter has already been stands compromised between the parties, the proceedings arising out of the impugned order (Annexure P-3) and the FIR (Annexure P-1) are liable to be quashed by this Court.

4. A co-ordinate Bench of this Court in CRM-M-43813-2018 titled as “Baldev Chand Bansal vs. State of Haryana and another”, decided on 29.01.2019 has held as under:-

“Prayer in this petition is for quashing of FIR No.64 dated 15.02.2017 filed under Section 174-A of the Indian Penal Code registered at Police Station Sector-5, Panchkula and all other subsequent proceedings arising thereof as well as order dated 24.10.2016 passed by the trial Court vide which a direction was issued to register the aforesaid FIR.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon the decisions rendered by this Court in “ Vikas Sharma vs. Gurpreet Singh Kohli and another (supra), 2017, (3) L.A.R.584, Microqual Techno Limited and others Vs. State of Haryana and another, 2015 (32) RCR (Crl.) 790 and “Rajneesh Khanna Vs. State of Haryana and another” 2017(3) L.A.R. 555 wherein in an identical circumstance, this Court has held that since the main petition filed under Section 138 of the Act stands withdrawn in view of an amicable settlement between the parties, therefore, continuation of proceedings under Section 174A of IPC shall be nothing but an abuse of the process of law.

In view of the same, I find merit in the present petition and accordingly, present petition is allowed and the impugned order dated 24.10.2016 passed by Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class, Panchkula as well as FIR No.64 dated 15.02.2017 registered under Section 174-A of the Indian Penal Code at Police Station Sector-5, Panchkula and all other subsequent proceedings arising thereof, are hereby quashed.”

5. A perusal of the above judgment would show that in a similar case where the FIR had been registered under Section 174-A

IPC in view of the order passed in proceedings under Section 138 of the Act, while declaring the petitioner therein as a proclaimed offender, a co-ordinate Bench after relying upon various judgments observed that once the main petition under Section 138 of the Act stands withdrawn in view of an amicable settlement between the parties, the continuation of proceedings under Section 174-A IPC is nothing but an abuse of the process of law. The said aspect was one of the main considerations for allowing the petition and setting aside the order declaring the petitioner therein as a proclaimed person as well as quashing of the FIR under Section 174-A IPC.

6. Another co-ordinate Bench of this Court in a case titled as “Ashok Madan vs. State of Haryana and another” reported as 2020(4) RCR (Criminal) 87 has also held as under:-

“No doubt, the learned counsel for the respondent has vehemently argued that the offence under Section 174A I.P.C. is independent of the main case, therefore, merely because the main case has been dismissed for want of prosecution, the present petition cannot be allowed, however, keeping in view the fact that the present FIR was registered only on account of absence from the proceedings in the main case which had been subsequently regularised by the court while granting bail to the petitioner, the default stood condoned. In such circumstances, continuation of proceedings under Section 174A I.P.C. shall be abuse of the process of court.

7. Accordingly, the petition is allowed. FIR No.446 dated 21.08.2017, registered under Section 174A I.P.C. At

7. In the present case also, the main case has already been withdrawn by the complainant. Consequently, the continuation of the proceedings arising out of the order dated 11.04.2022 (Annexure P-3) and FIR No. 502 dated 20.05.2022 under Section 174-A IPC registered at Police Station HTM Hisar, District Hisar, (Annexure P-1) would be an abuse of process of the Court. Similar observations have been made by this Court in the matter of “Anil Kumar Versus Jitender Kumar and another, CRM-M- 5878-2022 decided on 06.04.2022”, “Anil Kumar Versus Jitender Kumar and another, CRM-M-5755-2022 decided on 06.04.2022” and “Varinder Kumar @ Virender Kumar Versus State of Haryana and another, CRM-M-42551- 2021 decided on 19.04.2022”.

7. In view of the above, the present petition is allowed and impugned order dated 11.04.2022 (Annexure P-3) and the FIR No. 502 dated 20.05.2022 under Section 174-A IPC registered at Police Station HTM Hisar, District Hisar, (Annexure P-1) alongwith all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom are hereby ordered to be quashed.
