JAGMOHAN BANSAL, J. (Oral)

1. The petitioners through instant petition under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India are seeking direction to respondents to release family pension and other retiral/terminal dues of her husband.

2. The petitioner claims that her husband had retired from Punjab Police on 31.08.2023. He had served Punjab Police for 22 years and 06 months. He passed away on 23.01.2024. During his life time, he had submitted all the requisite documents for retiral benefits, however, respondent has not released family pension and other retiral dues.

3. Learned State counsel submits that State has already released gratuity, leave encashment and provident fund. The family pension stands sanctioned and petitioner has to furnish requisite documents to bank so that payment may be released.

4. Faced with this, learned counsel for the petitioner does not press the present petition and submits that petitioner would submit requisite documents to bank.

5. In the wake of statement of both sides, the present petition stands disposed of.
