Mr. Rajinder Mathur, Advocate,
for respondent No. 2.

HARKESH MANUJA, J. (ORAL)

The petitioner, by way of present petition filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C., seeks quashing of FIR No. 225, dated 07.08.2019 (Annexure P-1) under Sections 509 & 506 of IPC and Section 67 of I.T., Act, registered at Police Station Chappar, Yamunanagar, Haryana, alongwith all consequential proceedings arising out of the same on the basis of compromise dated 04.08.2020 (Annexure P-2/T).

[2] This Court, vide order dated 15.03.2024, directed the parties to appear before the Trial Court/Illaq Magistrate for recording their statements with regard to the validity of compromise.

[3] In pursuance of above order dated 15.03.2024, a report dated 09.04.2024 has been received from the concerned Court, stating that compromise effected between the parties is genuine, voluntary and without any coercion or undue influence. No accused has been declared as proclaimed offender.

[4] Thus once, the compromise has been arrived at between the parties without any pressure and respondent No. 2 having no objection as regards quashing of FIR as well as all other subsequent proceedings arising out of the same against the petitioner; there does not appear to be any impediment as regards quashing of present FIR qua the petitioner. Even otherwise, in order to maintain peace and harmony between the parties, particularly under the present circumstances wherein the alleged offences have no societal interest involved, it would be appropriate to render complete quietus to the aforementioned dispute by quashing the FIR on the basis of compromise entered into between the parties.

[5] The parties having settled their dispute so as to live in peace in future, no useful purpose would be served by proceeding further with the criminal proceedings. In the light of above developments, no cause remains for the Trial Court to invest further time and effort in adjudicating this FIR. The compromise in question is even found to be fully in consonance with the direction issued by the Court in Kulwinder Singh & Ors. Vs. State of Punjab 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab & Anr., 2012(4) RCR (Crl.) 543.

[6] Thus, in view of the aforesaid facts, accompanied by statements of both the parties as well as keeping in mind the law laid down in the aforementioned judgments, the petition is allowed and the FIR (supra) as well as all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom are hereby quashed qua the petitioner.

[7] The aforesaid order shall, however, be subject to payment of costs of Rs. 5,000/- to be deposited by the petitioner with the Nishkam Sewa Group (for Charitable Work), run by Punjab & Haryana High Court Lawyers at Chandigarh, within a period of one week from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.
