Vs.

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PANKAJ JAIN

Present: Mr. Gurpal Singh Sandhu, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Jasjit Singh, DAG, Punjab.

PANKAJ JAIN, J.(ORAL)

CRM-1064-2024

Application is allowed as prayed for.

Annexures P-7 to P-12 are taken on record.

Main case

1. This second petition has been filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C.

for grant of regular bail in case F.I.R. No.154 dated 03.09.2021 registered under Section 22-C NDPS Act, 1985, Challan presented under Section 22-

C, 61/85 NDPS Act and under Section 181 M.V. Act, 1860 at Police Station STF Phase-4, SAS Nagar, Mohali.

2. A case of the prosecution is that petitioner alongwith co-accused Gurwinder Singh was apprehended while travelling in a car. A bag containing 11,200 tablets of Tramadol was recovered and the petitioner was driving the car.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is behind the bars since 03.09.2021 and by now has suffered incarceration of 02 years 04 months and out of total 25 prosecution witnesses, only 04 witnesses have been examined. He further submits that now the co-accused, namely, Gurwinder Singh stands admitted to bail vide order dated 06.11.2023 passed by this Court in CRM-M-28083-2023.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that the petitioner has clean antecedents and keeping in view the custody, he deserves to be granted concession of bail apart from parity with co-accused. He further submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by each and every condition as may be imposed by this Court.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner further relies upon order passed by Apex Court in the case of “Rabi Prakash Vs. The State of Odisha” passed in Special Leave to Appeal (Crl.) No(s). 4169 of 2023 decided on 13.07.2023 wherein it has been held as under :-

“4. As regard to the twin conditions contained in Section 37 of the NDPS Act, learned counsel for the respondent – State has been duly heard. Thus, the 1st condition stands complied with. So far as the 2nd condition re: formation of opinion as to whether there are reasonable grounds to believe that the petitioner is not guilty, the same may not be formed at this stage when he has already spent more than three and a half years in custody. The prolonged incarceration, generally militates against the most precious fundamental right guaranteed under Article 21 of the Constitution and in such a situation, the conditional liberty must override the statutory embargo created under Section 37(1)(b) (ii) of the NDPS Act.”

6. Earlier to Rabi Prakash's case supra also, Apex Court has consistently held that the prolonged incarceration has to be considered de hors bar contained under Section 37 of the NDPS Act. The Supreme Court in order dated 22.08.2022 passed by the Supreme Court in Special

Leave to Appeal (Crl.) No.5530-2022 titled as "Mohammad Salman Hanif Shaikh Vs. The State of Gujarat, had held as under:-

"We are inclined to release the petitioner on bail only on the ground that he has spent about two years in custody and conclusion of trial will take some time.

Consequently, without expressing any views on the merits of the case and taking into consideration the custody period of the petitioner, this special leave petition is accepted and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing the bail bonds to the satisfaction of the Special Judge/ concerned Trial Court.

The special leave petition is, accordingly, disposed of in the above terms. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed of."

7. The abovesaid case was also a case under the NDPS Act, 1985 and the FIR had been registered under Sections 8(c), 21(c) and 29 of the said Act. The case of the prosecution therein was that the recovery from the said petitioner (therein) was of commercial quantity. The Supreme Court had observed that the concession of bail was granted to the petitioner (therein) only on the ground that he had spent about two years in custody and the conclusion of trial would take some time.

8. Supreme Court in order dated 07.02.2020 passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Criminal Appeal No.245/2020 titled as "Chitta Biswas Alias Subhas Vs. The State of West Bengal" was pleased to grant concession of bail to the petitioner (therein) in a case where the custody was of 1 year and 7 months approximately. The relevant portion of the said order dated 07.02.2020 is as under: - "Leave granted.

This appeal arises out of the final Order dated 30.7.2010 passed by the High Court of Calcutta in CRM No.6787 of 2019.

The instant matter arises out of application preferred by the appellant under Section 439 Cr.P.C. seeking bail in connection with Criminal Case No.146 of 2018 registered with Taherpur Police Station for offence punishable under Section 21-C of the Narcotic Drugs and Psychotropic Substances Act, 1985.

According to the prosecution, the appellant was found to be in possession of narcotic substance i.e. 46 bottles of phensydryl cough syrup containing codeine mixture above commercial quantity.

Without expressing any opinion on the merits or demerits of the rival submissions and considering the facts and circumstances on record, in our view, case for bail is made out. We therefore, allow this appeal and direct as under:
