... Petitioners

Vs.

Abdul Karim

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARPREET SINGH BRAR

Present: Mr. Gurjant Singh, Advocate for the petitioners.

HARPREET SINGH BRAR, J. (ORAL)

CRM-34813-2024

1. Present application has been filed under Section 5 of the Limitation Act for condonation of delay of 48 days in filing the revision petition.

2. In view of the averments made in the application, same is allowed and delay of 48 days in filing the revision petition is condoned.

CRR(F)-1101-2024

3. Present revision petition has been preferred for enhancement of the amount of maintenance as awarded vide impugned order dated

27.03.2024 passed by learned Principal Judge, Family Court, Nuh, Camp Court at Ferozepur Jhirka, whereby, while allowing the petition filed under Section 125 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (for short 'Cr.P.C.'), maintenance allowance of Rs.16,000/- per month was awarded to be paid to the petitioners i.e. Rs.8,000/- per month to petitioner No.1 and Rs.4,000/- per month each to petitioners No.2 & 3.

4. The marriage between petitioner No.1 and the respondent was solemnized in the year 2004 according to Muslim rites and rituals. Out of this wedlock, two children i.e. petitioners No.2 & 3 were born. However, matrimonial dispute ensued between the couple and the petitioners filed a petition under Section 125 Cr.P.C. seeking maintenance of Rs.40,000/- per month. The respondent filed a reply and contested the claim made by the petitioners. Learned Family Court, vide impugned order dated 27.03.2024, granted maintenance allowance of Rs.8,000/- per month in favour of petitioner No.1 and Rs.4,000/- per month each in favour of petitioners No.2 & 3. Feeling aggrieved, the petitioners have approached this Court for enhancement of the amount of maintenance allowance, by filing the present petition.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioners, inter alia, contends that learned Family Court fell into grave error by awarding the meager amount of Rs.16,000/- per month as maintenance, which is not sufficient to sustain the petitioners. The respondent is having agricultural land and is also generating rental income. He is working as JBT Teacher and is getting salary of Rs.66,142/- per month.

6. Having heard learned counsel for the petitioners and after perusing the record with his able assistance, this Court finds no force in the arguments advanced on behalf of the petitioners.

7. The object and purpose behind granting maintenance is to ensure that the dependent spouse is not reduced to destitution or vagrancy on account of failure of marriage. At the same time, a just and careful balance must be struck to ensure that this provision does not degenerate into a weapon to punish the other spouse. The Courts are required to conduct the maintenance proceedings, while being alive to the legislative intent behind the provision under Section 125 Cr.P.C in its true spirit, which is to provide speedy assistance and social justice to women, children and infirm parents. The provisions of Section 125 Cr.P.C. were enacted as a measure to further social justice and protect dependent women, children and parents, which also fall within the constitutional sweep of Article 15(3) reinforced by Article 39 of the Constitution of India.

8. A three-Judge Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Vimala (K.) Vs. Veeraswamy (K.) (1991) 2 SCC 375, speaking through Justice Fatima Beevi, opined as follows:

“3. Section 125 of the Code of Criminal Procedure is meant to achieve a social purpose. The object is to prevent vagrancy and destitution. It provides a speedy remedy for the supply of food, clothing, and shelter to the deserted wife.”

9. Further, a two-Judge Bench of the Hon’ble Supreme Court in Kirtikant D. Vadodaria Vs. State of Gujarat (1996) 4 SCC 479, speaking through Justice Faizan Uddin, opined as follows:

“15.... While dealing with the ambit and scope of the provision contained in Section 125 of the Code, it has to be borne in mind that the dominant and primary object is to give social justice to the woman, child and infirm parents, etc. and to prevent destitution and vagrancy by compelling those who can support those who are unable to support themselves but have a moral claim for support. The provisions in Section 125 provide a speedy remedy to those women, children and destitute parents who are in distress. The provisions in Section 125 are intended to achieve this special purpose. The dominant purpose behind the benevolent provisions contained in Section 125 clearly is that the wife, child and parents should not be left in a helpless state of distress, destitution and starvation.”

10. Another objective the legislature has sought to achieve by this provision is to provide maintenance pendente lite to the applicant spouse during proceedings emerging out of matrimonial disputes so that she/he can maintain herself/himself, have sufficient funds to pursue the litigation, and not suffer at the instance of the affluent spouse.

11. There is a general tendency on the part of the wife to amplify her needs and the husband to conceal his actual income, making it difficult to determine the earning capacity of the rival claimants with exactitude. The rival claimants must scrupulously bring on record their actual respective earning capacities in order for the Court to arrive at quantum of maintenance which is just and fair in terms of principle of equistatus. The quantum of maintenance must be justifiable and realistic to provide succour to the dependent spouse and also to avoid occurrence of the two extremes of the maintenance being either paltry or extravagant, ensuring that neither of the two is reduced to a life of penury. The adequacy of the maintenance allowance has to be determined by the yardstick of the dependent spouse being able to lead a life of reasonable comfort.

12. While dealing with the issue of maintenance in extenso, a two Judge Bench of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Rajnesh Vs. Neha and another, (2021) 2 SCC 324 laid down the criteria for determining quantum of maintenance and issued the following directions:

"VI Final Directions

130. In view of the foregoing discussion as contained in Part B -1 to V of this judgment, we deem it appropriate to pass the following directions in exercise of our powers under Article 142 of the Constitution of India:

(a) Issue of overlapping jurisdiction

131. To overcome the issue of overlapping jurisdiction, and avoid conflicting orders being passed in different proceedings, it has become necessary to issue directions in this regard, so that there is uniformity in the practice followed by the Family Courts/District Courts/Magistrate Courts throughout the country. We direct that:

(i) where successive claims for maintenance are made by a party under different statutes, the Court would consider an adjustment or setoff, of the amount awarded in the previous proceeding/s, while determining whether any further amount is to be awarded in the subsequent proceeding:

(ii) it is made mandatory for the applicant to disclose the previous proceeding and the orders passed therein, in the subsequent proceeding;

(iii) if the order passed in the previous proceeding/s requires any modification or variation, it would be required to be done in the same proceeding

(b) Payment of Interim Maintenance

132. The Affidavit of Disclosure of Assets and Liabilities annexed as Enclosures I, II and III of this judgment, as may be applicable, shall be filed by both parties in all maintenance proceedings, including pending proceedings before the concerned Family Court / District Court / Magistrates Court, as the case may be, throughout the country.

(c) Criteria for determining the quantum of maintenance

133. For determining the quantum of maintenance payable to an applicant, the Court shall take into account the criteria enumerated in Part B III of the judgment.

134. The aforesaid factors are however not exhaustive, and the concerned Court may exercise its discretion to consider any other factor/s which may be necessary or of relevance in the facts and circumstances of a case.

(d) Date from which maintenance is to be awarded

135. We make it clear that maintenance in all cases will be awarded from the date of filing the application for maintenance, as held in Part B-IV above.

(e) Enforcement/Execution of orders of maintenance

136. For enforcement/execution of orders of maintenance, it is directed that an order or decree of maintenance may be enforced under Section 28A of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1956; Section 20(6) of the D.V. Act; and Section 128 of Cr.P.C may be applicable. The order of maintenance may be enforced as a money decree of a civil court as per the provisions of the CPC more particularly Sections 51, 55, 58, 60 r.w. Order XXI."

13. A perusal of the record indicates that the respondent is a JBT Teacher and his net income is Rs.64,450/- per month excluding statutory deductions. The Hon'ble Supreme Court in Kalyan Dey Chowdhary Vs. Rita Dey Chowdhary Nee Nandy, AIR 2017 SC 2383 has held that awarding 25% of the husband's salary as maintenance to the wife would be just and proper. Further, perusal of the impugned order passed by learned Family Court makes it evident that the Court below has duly considered the material placed before it for determining the quantum of maintenance. A careful and just balance has been drawn, keeping in view the spiralling inflation rates and high cost of living corresponding to the reasonable needs of the petitioners. Learned counsel for the petitioners has not been able to indicate any perversity in the impugned order, which warrants interference by this Court.

14. Accordingly, the present petition is dismissed being bereft of any merit.
