3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 04.09.2024 from Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Faridabad has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“i. In reference to the above cited subject, I have the honour to submit that in pursuance of Order dated 22.08.2024 passed by the Hon'ble High Court, the complainant Soniya and Investigating Officer IIC Renu appeared before the under-signed and their statements have been recorded. The parties have relied upon their Aadhaar card for identification, copies of which are placed on record.

ii. The complainant, namely, Soniya and accused persons, namely, Krishan, Jai Pal Singh, Rajo and Kamal Singh suffered a statement to the effect that they have settled their dispute amicably with the intervention of elders and respectable persons of the society. They further stated that they have entered into a compromise with the complainant out of their sweet will, without any fear, coercion or pressure from anyone. They further stated that they have never been declared Proclaimed Offenders/persons and no such proceedings are pending against them before any competent Court of law. Both sides were duly identified by their respective Counsels.

iii. The under-signed inquired from the parties about the factum of compromise to which they stated at bar, in consonance with their statements, that they have settled their dispute by entering into a compromise which is acceptable to both of them. The said compromise has been effected voluntarily and without any pressure, with the intervention of respectable persons of society. They further stated that all their disputes have been put to rest and they have no grudge against each other. The complainant Soniya further stated that she has no objection if the proceedings of this case qua the accused are quashed by the Hon'ble High Court.

iv. As per the statement of Investigating Officer IIC Renu, no proclaimed offender/person proceedings are pending against any of the parties. Further, there is no person, other than the above-named accused persons, who has involvement in the present case. There is no other complainant or affected/aggrieved person, apart from the above-named complainant. i.e. Soniya.

v. The under-signed is of the considered view that the compromise appears to be genuine and has been reached at voluntarily, without any pressure or undue influence between the complainant, namely, Soniya and accused persons, namely, Krishan, Jai Pal Singh, Rajo and Kamal Singh. Further, they have made their statements voluntarily and without any threat, inducement, coercion or undue influence. Hence, from the careful scrutiny of material on record and upon reasonable inquiry from the parties in this regard, the compromise appears to be genuine and voluntary.

vi. Statements of the complainant Soniya and accused persons, namely, Krishan, Jai Pal Singh, Rajo and Kamal Singh and Investigating Officer HC Renu are enclosed with the present report in compliance of Order of the Hon'ble High Court dated 22.08.2024."

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.

- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.*
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.*
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.*
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.*

The statutory provision of Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 is same as the statutory provision of Section 482 of Cr.P.C., 1973. Therefore, the above said principles of law would apply to a petition under Section 528 of BNSS, 2023 as well.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 528 of BNSS, 2023 to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.18 dated 12.02.2023 under Sections 313, 323, 34, 354-A, 498-A and 506 of IPC, registered at Women Police Station, Faridabad and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 08.08.2024 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.

10. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
