AT CHANDIGARH

Date of Decision:05.09.2024

Rajinder Singh @ Jindu

...Petitioner

vs.

State of Punjab

...Respondent

Coram : Hon'ble Mr. Justice N.S.Shekhawat

Present : Mr. Mandeep Singh, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. I.P.S Sabharwal, DAG, Punjab.

N.S.Shekhawat J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 482 of Cr.P.C with a prayer to quash the impugned order dated 05.02.2024 (Annexure P-4), whereby the bail of the petitioner was cancelled and the petitioner was ordered to be summoned through non-bailable warrants of arrest and the impugned order dated 17.08.2024 (Annexure P-5), whereby the proclamation warrant of the petitioner was issued, by the Special Court, Patiala.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner was falsely involved in the FIR, which was registered on 11.06.2023 and thereafter, he was ordered to be released on bail on 01.09.2023. The final report under Section 173 Cr.P.C was presented against the petitioner before the Trial Court on 07.08.2023. Learned counsel further contends that the petitioner was regularly appearing before the Trial Court and never misused the concession of bail.

However, on one date i.e. 20.11.2023, he could not appear before the Trial Court. Due to non-appearance of the petitioner, the petitioner was ordered to be summoned through non-bailable warrants of arrest and proclamation was issued against him. Learned counsel for the petitioner next contends that the petitioner is ready to surrender before the Court and shall join the trial proceedings. He further contends that the petitioner shall appear on each and every date of hearing, before the Trial Court and shall not absent himself during the Court proceedings.

3. Notice of motion.

4. Mr. I.P.S Sabharwal, DAG, Punjab, who is present in the Court, accepts notice on behalf of respondent-State.

5. Learned State counsel has vehemently opposed the prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioner on the ground that the petitioner had not appeared intentionally before the Trial Court and there is no illegality in the impugned orders passed by the Trial Court and the petitioner does not deserve the concession of bail.

6. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

7. It is not in dispute that the petitioner was on bail earlier and was regularly appearing before the Trial Court, however, on 20.11.2023, he could not appear before the Trial Court.

8. Thus, taking a lenient view of the matter, the present petition is allowed subject to payment of cost of Rs.25,000/- which shall be deposited with Punjab and Haryana High Court Bar Clerks Association and the petitioner is permitted to surrender before the Trial Court/Duty Magistrate within a period of two weeks from today and on his surrender, he shall be admitted to bail subject to furnishing bail bonds and surety to the satisfaction of the concerned Court.

9. At the time of furnishing of bail bonds, the petitioner shall also file an affidavit before the concerned Court that he shall continue to appear before the Court on each and every date of hearing and shall not absent himself during the court proceedings, except with prior permission of the Court.

10. The Trial Court/Duty Magistrate shall also be at liberty to impose any other conditions, as it deems fit in the peculiar facts and circumstances of case.

11. The petition stands allowed in the above terms.
