1. By way of instant application under Section 11(6) of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (for short 'Act'), the applicant has approached this Court for appointment of an Arbitrator.

2. Learned counsel for the applicant submits that an Employment Agreement dated 24.01.2023 (Annexure P-1) was entered into between the parties and Clause 39 thereof, provides for resolution of dispute through arbitration. He further submits that a dispute arose between the parties and the respondent started soliciting the clients of the applicant after the termination of his appointment. Further, a notice dated 10.05.2023 (Annexure P-3) was served upon the respondent invoking the Arbitration Clause to which he has not responded.

3. In his reply, respondent has submitted that he had signed the employment agreement under duress. The date of agreement and resignation is same which creates doubt about the agreement.

4. I have heard the arguments of learned counsels for both sides and perused the record with their able assistance.

5. The agreement between the parties, the arbitration clause and the notice invoking the arbitration clause have been admitted.

6. In view of above facts and findings, this Court is of the considered opinion that present application deserves to be allowed and accordingly allowed.
