ANOOP CHITKARA, J. (Oral)

Seeking issuance of directions to the respondents to protect life and liberty, the petitioner has come up before this court by filing the present petition under Article 226 of Constitution of India.

2. After arguing for some time, petitioner's counsel submits that he would be contended and satisfied if he is permitted to file fresh representation before the Addl. Director General of Prisons, Punjab and the concerned official decide the same in a time bound manner.

3. Given above, let the petitioner represent to the concerned Addl. Director General of Prisons, Punjab, within 15 days from today. If such representation is filed, then the Addl. Director General of Prisons, either themselves or by delegating the same to the officer of IPS cadre shall decide the same by passing a reasoned order, and communicate the same to the representationists as well as his counsel, without any delay. In the representation, petitioner to mention the e-mail-id of his counsel so that the concerned officer could communicate them outcome.

4. Liberty reserved to the petitioner to file a fresh petition if he is still aggrieved or to take other legal remedies in accordance with the law.
5. It is clarified that there is no adjudication on merits. It is further clarified that this order shall not come in the way if the interrogation of the petitioners is required in any cognizable case.
6. There would be no need for a certified copy of this order, and any Advocate for the Petitioners and State can download this order and other relevant particulars from the official web page of this court and attest it to be a true copy. The concerned officer can also verify its authenticity and may download and use the downloaded copy for immediate use.
7. Petition is disposed to the extent mentioned above. All pending applications, if any, stand disposed.
