SUVIR SEHGAL, J. (Oral)

1. Instant writ petition has been filed under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India, inter alia for issuance of a writ in the nature of certiorari for quashing orders dated 14.12.2020 and 17.05.2022, Annexures P-8 and P-9, respectively, passed by the respondent authorities, whereby, petitioner has been fastened with the liability of deficit stamp duty of Rs.11,47,560/-.

2. Faced with an objection raised by the respondents in their written statement, counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the writ petition, with liberty to avail the remedy of revision available to him under Section 47-B of the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (for short "the Act") as applicable to the State of Haryana. He submits that while issuing notice on 31.10.2022, this Court directed that recovery shall remain stayed and as the petitioner is being relegated to avail the alternate remedy, petitioner may be protected.

3. As the petitioner has approached this Court without availing the revisional remedy, and an interim order was passed, the request made by the counsel seems to be reasonable and deserves to be accepted.
4. Dismissed as withdrawn. Liberty is granted to the petitioner to avail the alternate remedy available to him under the Act.
5. In case, petitioner files a revision petition within a period of three weeks from today, no coercive steps shall be taken to recover the deficit stamp duty till the adjudication of the revision petition.
