CRM-M No.47060 of 2024
Date of decision: 23.09.2024

DALBIR SINGH

.... Petitioner

Versus

VIKAS TUSHIR

.... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE MANISHA BATRA

Present : Mr. Parminder Singh, Advocate for the petitioner.

MANISHA BATRA, J. (oral)

1. The instant petition has been filed by the petitioner seeking quashing of order dated 27.03.2024 passed by learned Sessions Judge, Sonipat, in CRA No.82/2024 titled as Dalbir Singh vs. Vikas Tushir, whereby, while suspending the sentence of the petitioner, as awarded to him in criminal complaint filed under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881 (for short 'N.I. Act') deposit 20% of the compensation amount as awarded by the trial Court.

2. It is argued by learned counsel for the petitioner that the impugned order is not sustainable in the eyes of law as learned appellate Court, while giving such direction, failed to consider the fact that deposit of 20% of the compensation amount was not absolute requirement for suspension of sentence and this condition was to be imposed in exceptional circumstances. Hence, it is urged that the impugned order passed by the appellate Court is liable to be set aside. To fortify his argument, he has placed reliance upon the judgments passed by the co-ordinate Benches of this Court in CRM-M-3878-2024, titled as Abdul Rashid vs. Kuldeep Singh, decided on 24.01.2024,

CRM-M-20840-2024 titled as Sarif Mohammad @ Sareef Mohammad vs. Swaran Singh and another, decided on 26.04.2024, CRM-M-6508-2024 titled as Vikram Singh and another vs. Nasar and another, decided on 08.02.2024 and CRM-M-2503-2024 titled as Sahil Puri vs. Sonu Kumar and another, , decided on 18.01.2024

3. I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner at considerable length and have also gone through the material placed on record.

4. On a perusal of the record, it is revealed that the learned trial Court, vide judgment of conviction dated 29.02.2024, passed in a complaint filed under Section 138 of N. I. Act, had held the petitioner guilty for commission of offence punishable under the aforementioned section and apart from awarding sentence to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of one year and two months, had also directed him to pay compensation to the tune of cheque amount i.e. Rs. 10,40,000/-. The petitioner challenged the order passed by the trial Court by filing aforesaid appeal before the learned appellate Court and the appellate Court, vide impugned order dated 27.03.2024, suspended the sentence of petitioner, subject to his depositing 20% of the compensation amount with the trial Court.

5. In Jamboo Bhandari vs. M. P. State Industrial Development Corporation Ltd. And others : (2024) 1 SCC (Cri) 90, it was observed Hon'ble Supreme Court that deposit of 20% of the compensation amount was not an absolute requirement for suspension of sentence, if the Court is satisfied that the condition of such deposit will be unjust or imposing of such a condition will amount to deprivation of the right of appeal of the appellant.

This proposition of law is shown to have been followed by the co-ordinate Benches of this Court in Abdul Rashid's case (supra) as well as afore cited other similar cases. In the instant case, while imposing condition of deposit of 20% of compensation amount, the learned appellate Court is not shown to have given any opportunity to the petitioner to make submissions regarding the exceptional circumstances warranting requirement of waiver of depositing of 20% of compensation amount and is shown to have imposed the said condition without the same. Therefore, keeping in view the settled proposition of law to the effect that the appellate Court was firstly required to consider as to whether the instant case falls within the exceptions warranting grant of suspension of sentence without imposing condition of deposit of 20% of compensation amount/fine, the impugned order dated 27.03.2024 cannot be stated to be sustainable to the extent to which the condition of deposit of 20% of the compensation amount was imposed. Accordingly, the same is set aside to that extent. The matter is remanded to learned appellate Court for deciding the same afresh after re-examining the case by granting an opportunity to the petitioner to make submissions regarding exceptional circumstances warranting waiver of requirement of depositing 20% of the compensation amount in pursuance of judgment passed by Hon'ble Supreme Court in Jamboo Bhandari's case (supra). The petition stands disposed of.
