CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD S. BHARDWAJ

Present :- Petitioner in person through V.C.

VINOD S. BHARDWAJ, J. (Oral)

1. The instant petition has been filed seeking compensation on account of mental harassment and agony purportedly on account of the DJ being played at odd hours and beyond the permissible limits.

2. The petitioner, who is present in person, informs that he had moved an application under Section 156(3) of Cr.P.C. before the Illaqa Magistrate, however, the same was dismissed in default on 01.02.2024 against which a petition has already been preferred. He further points out that the Investigating Agency has furnished a wrong report. Be that as it may, since the petitioner has taken recourse to the appropriate proceedings in accordance with law which are still pending, the present petition is disposed of as not pressed at this stage with liberty to the petitioner to take recourse to alternative remedies available to him in accordance with law.

3. Needless to mention that the Revisional Court shall expedite the process of adjudication of the Revision Petition that has already been filed by the petitioner.

4. The present petition is accordingly disposed of as not pressed with the liberty as aforesaid.
